Beijing Enterprises Water Group ‘Water going into Urumqi’ Project — Pilot Project
Has Shown overall effect

(Hong Kong, 14 September 2018) The pilot project, ShiQiHu Wetland and DaZhaiZha & Interconnected River System Network Project, has already presented the overall effect, which is under the contract, ‘Water going into Urumqi’ Project (hereafter referred to as ‘the project’), signed by Beijing Enterprises Water Group (hereafter referred to as ‘BEWG’) and Urumqi Water Bureau.

The project involves a total investment of RMB 1.967 billion, which is entirely invested by the municipal government of Urumqi, and BEWG is responsible for the whole project’s planning, design, engineering management services and operation and maintenance services. The whole operation and maintenance period is 10 years.

The overall presentation of the pilot project reflects BEWG’s comprehensive capabilities of the planning, design and management of
