- (3) Mr Loubier, a director of the Company (as guarantor in respect of HKL's obligations and liabilities under the Consultancy Services Agreement).

Services to be provided

The Consultancy Services to be provided by HKL include, among others, the provision of advisory services to the Group on the setting of goals and formulation of strategies of the Group's newly acquired Cerruti business in Europe, defining and implementing an international growth strategy for the Cerruti business, and facilitating communications and cooperation between the Group's management in Hong Kong and the management team of the Cerruti business in Paris.

Term

The term of the Consultancy Services Agreement commences on 1 April 2011 and ending on 31 March 2012, subject to early termination by LiFung Trinity Management or HKL by giving to the other a 1-month notice in writing or payment in lieu of notice.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE TRANSACTION

The Group principally engages in the retailing of high-end to luxury menswear under self-owned brands and licensed brands in the Greater China Region.

HKL is principally engaged in the provision of consultancy and advisory services and is wholly owned and managed by Mr Loubier. The Directors consider that based on the experience and expertise of Mr Loubier, the Consultancy Services to be provided by HKL will be contributory to the Group's development of the newly acquired Cerruti business, in particular in Europe.

The Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) consider that the terms of the Consultancy Services Agreement (including the consultancy fee) are on normal commercial terms and are fair and reasonable, and are in the interests of the Group and the Shareholders as a whole. Mr Loubier, by virtue of his interests in HKL, had abstained from voting on the relevant board resolution as required by the Company's Bye-laws or the Listing Rules.
