PRESS RELEASE

30 January 2024, Hong Kong

BEHL Included in Hang Seng SCHK SOEs High Dividend Yield ESG Index

(Hong Kong, 30 January 2024) - Beijing Enterprises Holdings Limited ("BEHL" or the "Company"; Stock code: 0392.HK) has been included on 29 January as an initial constituent in the newly launched Hang Seng SCHK SOEs High Dividend Yield ESG Index composed by the Hang Seng Indexes Company Limited.

Launched in 1969, the Hang Seng Index is among major stock indexes in the world and has been an important indicator of performance of the Hong Kong stock market. The Hang Seng SCHK SOEs High Dividend Yield ESG Index is one of the five new indexes added on 29 January. It aims to reflect the overall performance of high-yield securities listed in Hong Kong with Chinese government entities as their largest shareholder, and ESG elements are integrated in the constituent selection process. The 40 constituents of the index are state-owned enterprises standing out in ESG performance and an index review will be conducted annually.

BEHL is committed to fully integrating the concept of sustainable development into its production and operations. It has established a three-layered – "Governance-Management-Execution" – sustainable development governance structure and has kept improving top-down promotion of implementing sustainable development management with an emphasis on quantitative measurement of relevant performances. Being included in the Hang Seng SCHK SOEs High Dividend Yield ESG Index is proof of BEHL enjoying capital market recognition for its status as a state-owned enterprise, as well as its ESG governance and sustainable development achievements.

In the future, BEHL will continue to give full play to its strengths and resources as a state-owned enterprise, establish a sound ESG work mechanism, strive to operate in harmony with society and environment and create long-term stable social, environmental and corporate values, in its bid to realize sustainable development and bring long-standing returns to shareholders.
