BEHL's S&P CSA Score Significantly Surpasses Industry Average

(9 October 2024, Hong Kong) - Beijing Enterprises Holdings Limited (“BEHL” or the “Company”; stock code: 0392.HK) announced today that it has scored 55 points in the latest S&P Global Corporate Sustainability Assessment (“S&P Global CSA”), which is 20 points above the industry average and surpasses 78% of its peers evaluated.

One of the largest annual evaluations of corporate sustainability practices in the world, the S&P Global CSA, which is highly credible in the ESG realm, aims to assess companies' performance in addressing major ESG risks, opportunities, and impacts and their capabilities to achieve sustainability. In the assessment this year, BEHL achieved good results in biodiversity preservation, labor practices, customer relations, and information security, scoring higher than 90% of its peers evaluated.

In recent years, BEHL has seen continuous improvement in its ESG ratings. In early 2024, the Company's MSCI ESG Rating was upgraded by two notches to “A”. In addition, it has been included in the Hang Seng SCHK SOEs High Dividend Yield ESG Index, which fully reflects the capital market's high recognition for BEHL's ESG practices.

In the future, BEHL will continue to deeply integrate the concept of sustainable development into its production and operations, attach great importance to and actively implement environmental protection and low-carbon principals, fulfill its social responsibilities and optimize corporate governance. The Company aims to continually improve by benchmarking against international standards and global best practices, so as to achieve all-win over time in terms of economic, environmental and social benefits.
