BEHL Receives "Listed Enterprises 2025" Award from The Chinese Edition of Bloomberg Businessweek, Comprehensive Strength Recognized by the Market

(December 1, 2025, Hong Kong) Beijing Enterprises Holdings Limited ("BEHL" or the "Company", stock code: 0392.HK) recently has received the "Listed Enterprises 2025" award from The Chinese edition of Bloomberg Businessweek. The award fully recognizes the Company's outstanding and comprehensive strength in areas including financial performance, corporate governance, investor relations, corporate social responsibility, sustainability, innovative business models and risk management.

"Listed Enterprises 2025", now in its tenth year, is organized by The Chinese edition of Bloomberg Businessweek and is renowned for its rigor and authority. This award represents the first listed-company selection event in Hong Kong to utilize the Bloomberg Terminal for the screening process. By combining objective scoring from a professional panel of government, business, and academia, the selection results are objective and fair, thereby allowing the strengths of the winning companies to gain wide recognition and affirmation from the industry and investors.

BEHL is a state-owned listed integrated public utilities company with gas, water and environmental businesses at its core and the beer business as a complementary segment. Many of its member enterprises are industry leaders. Looking back on this year, all business segments have achieved remarkable results. Among them, Beijing Gas Group Company Limited (“Beijing Gas”), as China’s largest and the world’s second-largest single city gas supplier, successfully organized the World Gas Conference and signed major LNG cooperation agreements this year; Beijing Enterprises Water Group Limited (“BE Water”, stock code: 0371.HK), China’s largest water company with global operations, has been recognized as one of the “Top Ten Influential Enterprises in China’s Water Industry” for the 15th consecutive year; Beijing Enterprises Environment Group Limited (“BE Environment”, stock code: 0154.HK), a leading company in China’s waste-to-energy industry, has consistently improved its operational technology and efficiency; EEW Energy from Waste GmbH (“EEW GmbH”), a leading German solid waste energy recovery company, wholly owned by the Company, commenced operations at a new plant and launched innovative warehousing strategies; and Beijing Yanjing Brewery Co., Ltd. (“Yanjing Brewery”, code: 000729.SZ), a well-known national brand in China, launched a “beer and soft drinks” dual-drive strategy to further expand its market growth potential. The Company has actively integrated ESG principles into its corporate governance and business strategies. From adopting low-carbon and environmentally friendly operational policies within the industry, to encouraging employees to engage in public welfare initiatives, it has continuously strengthened its role as a responsible state-owned enterprise, fulfilled its social responsibilities, and contributed to the sustainable development of both the Company and society.
