PROPOSED CHANGE OF AUDITORS

The Board announces that Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu (“Deloitte”) has resigned as the auditors of the Group with effect from 20 November 2008. The Board proposed to appoint PricewaterhouseCoopers (“PwC”) as the new auditors of the Group to fill the vacancy following the resignation of Deloitte subject to the approval by the shareholders of the Company (the “Shareholders”) at the special general meeting (the “SGM”).

The board of directors (the “Board”) of Wah Nam International Holdings Limited (the “Company”) announces that Deloitte has resigned as the auditors of the Company and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) on 20 November 2008. The Board resolved to appoint PwC as the Company’s auditor.

The Board was informed by Deloitte that they decided to tender their resignation as the Group’s auditor after taking into account of many factors including scope of audit work, professional risk assessment, their available internal resources involved and the level of audit fees.

Save for the above, Deloitte confirmed that there were no circumstances connected with their resignation which they considered should be brought to the attention of the Shareholders.

Subject to the approval of the Shareholders at the SGM, the Board has resolved to appoint PwC as the new auditors of the Group to fill the vacancy and to hold office until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the Company.

A circular containing, among other things, details of the proposed appointment together with the notice of SGM will be despatched to the Shareholders as soon as practicable.

By order of the Board
