

China Comservice Ranks Top Four at "China Software 100" for Two Consecutive Years

02 Mar 2023

China Federation of Electronics and Information Industry has recently announced the "100 Most Competitive Software & IT Services Enterprises 2022" (the "China Software 100") , and China Communications Services Corporation Limited ("China Comservice" or "the Company") won the 4th place in the "China Software 100" and ranked in the top four for the second consecutive year.

"China Software 100" is one of the most authoritative and influential awards in software and IT service industry in China, and it aims to scientifically and accurately reflect the performance and competitiveness of software and IT service enterprises for the purpose of facilitating the leading enterprises to accelerate the comprehensive competitiveness and brand influence, and promoting the high-quality development of the industry. The organizer selected the "China Software 100" through the comprehensive analysis of multidimensional indicators such as scale, efficiency, quality, technology, R&D and social responsibility. In addition to China Comservice, the top four companies also included the industry leaders such as Tencent, Huawei and Baidu.

As a New Generation Integrated Smart Service Provider, China Comservice provides integrated comprehensive smart solutions for the informatization and digitalization sectors, and actively participates in "Digital China", "Cyberpower" and "Smart Society". Being awarded the 4th place of the "China Software 100" for two consecutive years, it's fully affirming for the Company's outstanding performance in software and IT services, technology R&D and other aspects.
