

CPID Signs Strategic Cooperation Agreement with Government of Donglan County on Pumped Storage Project

On May 31, 2022, CPID and the Government of Donglan County signed a strategic cooperation framework agreement on pumped storage power project development in Donglan County. Mr. Xia Liang, Regional Development Director of CPID Guangxi, and Mr. Pan Huakai, Deputy Mayor of Donglan County, signed the agreement on behalf of their respective sides.

At the signing ceremony, Mr. Xia briefly introduced the current development of CPID's pumped storage projects in Guangxi Autonomous Region, and fully affirmed the advantages of the Donglan pumped storage project in terms of pre-development conditions. He said that CPID would actively respond to the national pumped storage development arrangements, give full play to its advantages in technology, engineering, investment, construction and upstream and downstream industries and fully promote the project.

Leaders from the Development and Reform Bureau, Water Resources Bureau, Natural Resources Bureau, and Investment Promotion Bureau of Donglan County attended the signing ceremony.
