

XYZ Storage Honored with the Title of 2024 Fangshan District "Science and Technology Innovation" Youth Strike Team

On April 29, 2024, the Beijing Fangshan District Committee of the Communist Youth League held the Fangshan Youth Ideological Exchange and "May Fourth" Youth Day Activity with the theme of "supporting high-quality economic and social development with youth in the forefront". XYZ Storage Technology Corp., Ltd. (XYZ Storage) was invited to participate in the activity, and the XYZ Storage Youth Strike Team for Safety Emergency Hut Project was awarded the title of 2024 Fangshan District "Science and Technology Innovation" Youth Strike Team.

After the 2023 extreme heavy rain disaster, XYZ Storage actively responded to the call for post-disaster reconstruction in Fangshan District and formed the XYZ Storage Youth Strike Team for Safety Emergency Hut Project, with team members conducting more than 20 field surveys in the Fangshan disaster area to fully understand the actual situation and needs during the disaster. With solid technical skills and rich practical experience, the team ensured that the safety shelters were built and put into operation in various parts of Fangshan as soon as possible, playing an important role in flood prevention, disaster relief and emergency assistance.
