OFAC GENERAL LICENSE NO. 1A

This announcement is made by China Unicom (Hong Kong) Limited (the “Company”) on a voluntary basis.

Reference is made to (i) the announcement of the Company dated 13 November 2020 in relation to an executive order signed by the President of the United States on 12 November 2020 (as amended, the “Executive Order”) and (ii) the announcement of the Company dated 7 January 2021 in relation to the announcement by The New York Stock Exchange LLC (the “NYSE”) that NYSE Regulation had determined to re-commence delisting proceedings of the American Depositary Shares of the Company (NYSE stock ticker: CHU) (the “ADSs”).

The Executive Order (i) prohibits (the “Prohibitions”) any transaction by any United States person, subject to certain divestiture and other exemptions, in publicly traded securities, or any securities that are derivative of, or are designed to provide investment exposure to such securities, of certain Chinese companies (each, a “Restricted Company”) and (ii) authorizes the United States Secretary of the Treasury to publicly list an entity as a Restricted Company, with respect to which the Prohibitions shall take effect on the date that is 60 days after such listing. The United States Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (“OFAC”) maintains a list of companies identified as a Restricted Company (the “Restricted List”) and, on 8 January 2021, added the Company to the “Issuer Name” column of the Restricted List. On 6 January 2021, the NYSE announced the determination to re-commence proceedings to delist the ADSs based on specific guidance from OFAC (available at <https://home.treasury.gov/policy-issues/financial-sanctions/faqs/864>) that the Prohibitions with respect to the Company would take effect on 11 January 2021 (being 60 days after the date of the Executive Order).

The Company noted that, on 27 January 2021 (US Eastern standard time), OFAC published General License No. 1A in relation to the Executive Order (“GL 1A”), dated 26 January 2021, and guidance relating to two related frequently asked questions (respectively, “FAQ 878” and “FAQ 879”). For the full text of GL 1A, FAQ 878 and FAQ 879, see <https://home.treasury.gov/policy-issues/financial-sanctions/recent-actions/20210127>.

GL 1A and FAQ 879 provide, among others, that, pursuant to the Executive Order, the Prohibitions with respect to the Company take effect on the date that is 60 days after the Company was added to the Restricted List, or 9 March 2021 (instead of 11 January 2021).

The Company will continue to pay close attention to the development of related matters and also seek professional advice and reserve all rights to protect the legitimate interests of the Company. The Company will publish further announcement(s) as necessary and when appropriate in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and applicable laws in the future.

Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution in dealing in the securities of the Company.
