CIFI Donates COVID-19 Rapid Test Kits to Po Leung Kuk to Support Hong Kong in Fight Against Pandemic

(10 March 2022 – Hong Kong) The fifth wave of COVID-19 pandemic has been resurgent in Hong Kong recently and various sectors in Hong Kong have joined hands to combat the pandemic. In supporting the anti-pandemic programs in Hong Kong, CIFI Foundation under CIFI Holdings (Group) Co. Ltd. ("CIFI" or the "Group", HKEx stock code: 884), a leading real estate developer and investor in first-, second- and robust third-tier cities in China, has urgently sourced medical supplies for the local front line to fight against the pandemic. CIFI Foundation delivered 50,000 COVID-19 rapid test kits to Po Leung Kuk, a Hong Kong charity organization, today to support the underprivileged groups in fight against the pandemic.

Mr. Lawrence Leung, Head of Capital Markets & Investor Relations of CIFI presented the COVID-19 Rapid Test Kits to Mr. Eddy Lo, Assistant Principal Social Services Secretary of Po Leung Kuk on behalf of CIFI Foundation

Founded in the late 19th Century in Hong Kong, Po Leung Kuk is a leading social service organization and fundraiser. It provides multifaceted and quality social, educational, recreational and cultural services to all ages in the community through its 300 service units. Every year, it serves over 800,000 people on average.

Mr. Lin Zhong, Chairman of CIFI, said "Since the outbreak of COVID-19, CIFI has been actively fulfilling its corporate social responsibility by giving full support to the national anti-pandemic efforts." In January 2020, CIFI donated RMB20 million to set up 'Special Funds for Fighting COVID-19' which was used to subsidize the medical workers, purchase and mobilize medical supplies for the front line to fight against the pandemic. With the onslaught of a new wave of resurgent COVID-19 pandemic in Hong Kong, CIFI has immediately initiated a donation, making efforts to combat the pandemic in Hong Kong. CIFI Foundation gives the grassroots citizens free rapid Covid-19 test kits through Po Leung Kuk as tokens of care and love, and as a way to ease their financial burden. CIFI is determined to fight the pandemic with all the Hong Kong citizens as one.
