Mr. Lam Kwong-siu, FEC Independent Non-Executive Director, Awarded Grand Bauhinia Medal by the Chief Executive of the HKSAR

Far East Consortium International Limited (“FEC”, along with its subsidiaries, the “Group”; SEHK: 35) and all its staff members extend their warmest congratulations to Mr. Lam Kwong-siu, an Independent Non-Executive Director of the Company, on being awarded the Grand Bauhinia Medal (“GBM”) by the Chief Executive of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“HKSAR”), in recognition of his significant contributions to assisting Hong Kong and overseas enterprises in forging partnership with the Chinese Mainland, and contributed remarkably to consolidating Hong Kong’s prominent status as an international financial and commercial centre.

Mr. Lam Kwong-siu was the delegate of the 10th National People’s Congress and has been an Independent Non-executive Director of the Company since 2011. Having served on the Board for nearly 15 years, Mr. Lam has provided invaluable guidance and support to the Group’s corporate governance and long-term development through his extensive business experience, broad public service background and profound insights into public affairs.

Mr. Lam currently serves as the Adviser of BOC International Holdings Limited, the honorary chairman of Hong Kong Federation of Fujian Association, the life honorary chairman of Hong Kong Fukien Chamber of Commerce, the vice chairman of Fujian Hong Kong Economic Co-operation, the life honorary chairman of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, an adviser of the Hong Kong Chinese Enterprises Association, the honorary president of the Chinese Bankers Club of Hong Kong, and appointed as the director and chairman of the board of governors of Hong Kong Chu Hai College in November and December 2021 respectively. Over the years, Mr. Lam has been actively involved in public and community service, with a strong commitment to youth development and the advancement of education in Hong Kong. The award of the GBM reflects the HKSAR Government's recognition of Mr. Lam's longstanding contributions to society and to the development of Hong Kong.

GBM is the highest award under the HKSAR Honours and Awards System, to recognise the selected person's life-long and highly significant contribution to the well-being of Hong Kong. A total of 466 individuals from different walks of life with diverse backgrounds were awarded honours by the Chief Executive this year. They have made significant contributions to Hong Kong in different areas, benefitting various domains and sectors of the community.
