The Golden Kunpeng China Financial Value Ranking Awards Ceremony, co-organised by Hong Kong Commercial Daily and the Global Commercial Newspapers Union, is the annual highlight of the Global Commercial Newspapers Economic Forum. This year’s selection process adhered to the principles of “openness, fairness, and impartiality”, evaluating companies across six key dimensions: “innovation, corporate governance, value creation, strategic foresight, growth potential, and social responsibility and sustainability”. Drawing on applications from listed companies and financial institutions, as well as nominations from the organising committee, the final award-winning enterprises were determined through a comprehensive assessment of objective data indicators provided by professional financial and securities institutions, complemented by expert input from an advisory panel and senior Hong Kong media executives.

As a leading environmental enterprise in China, Everbright Greentech has been deeply engaged in the clean energy sector over the years. While consolidating its core strengths, the Company has actively expanded along the industry value chain into higher value-added business, advancing the implementation of multiple high-value utilisation projects. This strategy has upgraded its profit model from single-track to diversified, further enhancing both value creation and resilience against risk. Supported by solid financial performance, a steadily rising market value, and an unwavering commitment to shareholder returns, Everbright Greentech distinguished itself in this year's selection process, securing the honour of "Most Valuable Listed Company for Investment".

Dr. Zhu Fugang, Chairman of Everbright Greentech, said, "This recognition reflects both Everbright Greentech's professional strengths and forward-looking strategy in the green economy, as well as the capital market's strong confidence in our value growth potential. For investors, it reaffirms that Everbright Greentech is a high-quality enterprise with sustainable growth momentum, capable of balancing shareholder interests with social responsibility. We regard this award as a new starting point from which to further strengthen our core competitiveness, explore new growth opportunities, and remain steadfast in our mission to create long-term, sustainable value for shareholders, society, and the environment."
