Founded in 1967, Institutional Investor is one of the most influential financial media in the world. The magazine conducts management team selections for companies in the Asia-Pacific region every year, and its annual ranking voting has become a major event in the international capital market and is recognized by the industry as the vane of global investment. This is the third consecutive year that Hengan International Group has won the "Most Honored Companies" award after 2020 and 2021.

A record-breaking 4,854 buy-side fund managers and 670 sell-side analysts participated in the survey this year, evaluating 1,612 listed companies and 2,606 managers in 18 industries in five categories, including the "Best CEO", "Best CFO" ", "Best Investor Relations Professional", "Best Investor Relations Program" and "Best ESG". Institutions participating in this year's survey manage a combined market capitalization of over $2 trillion in Asian equities.

Institutional Investor said, “This year we have seen global investors continue to rate Chinese listed companies ahead of other competitors in the region. It proves that Chinese companies' good corporate governance and financial disclosure can help the investment industry overcome the challenges of constantly changing regulations and uncertain geopolitical prospects while pursuing high returns.

Different from other award selections, the results of the "2022 Institutional Investor All-Asia Executive Team Survey" are completely voted by recognized professionals in the financial industry, and the list of judges is strong and authoritative. The award list is value-rich and is widely recognized by the industry.
