Operating profit increased by 49% from HK$792 million in 2010 to HK$1,184 million in 2011.

Increased availability of smart devices also added further boost to ARPU growth. Blended postpaid ARPU increased from HK$220 in 2010 to HK$244 in 2011, with 3G ARPU rising from HK$229 in 2010 to HK$248 in 2011.

Driven by its strong presence in the carrier market, the fixed-line operations of the Group continued to deliver an overall steady growth in 2011. Turnover of the fixed-line operations increased by 4% from HK$3,286 million in 2010 to HK$3,403 million in 2011. Revenue from the Revenue from the corporate and business market slightly increased from HK$838 million in 2010 to HK$840 million in 2011. Due to intense price competition in the voice sector of residential market, revenue from the residential market amounted to HK$583 million in 2011 compared to HK$642 million in 2010.

EBITDA was HK$1,016 million in 2011 compared to HK$1,064 million in 2010 following keen competition in the residential voice market, which was partially offset by growth in carrier and corporate markets. Operating profit in 2011 was HK$364 million, compared to HK$422 million in 2010, a decline of HK$58 million. This decline was due to the EBITDA decline mentioned above as well as a non-recurring loss of HK$44 million from write-off of submarine cables located at the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macau Bridge construction site. Capital expenditures were HK$529 million in 2011.

Outlook

The mobile operations has undertaken various initiatives to cope with increasing network capacity and coverage demand as well as to provide customers with innovative and attractive product offerings. Re-farming of the 900MHz band spectrum for 3G services is expected to be completed in 2012. This, coupled with launch of the Long Term Evolution service when more related mobile devices become available in the market, will enrich the Group's portfolio and provide further business growth opportunities. The Group's alliance with Vodafone, will also open up more business opportunities in the corporate market while benefiting customers with an expanded international roaming offering.

As one of the only three accredited vendors of Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited to provide Securities and Derivatives Network (SDNet/2) service, the fixed-line operations will be well positioned to serve the needs of a greater number of corporate customers. The fixed-line operations will also continue to benefit from increasing data usage from carrier, corporate and residential customers and increasing demand for new data centric services like mobile backhaul network and cloud computing services.

Leveraging its fixed-mobile integrated capabilities, along with best-in-class mobile networks supported by an extensive fibre infrastructure, the Group are currently in a strategically-advantageous position to provide a wider selection of competitively priced and attractive service offerings and to further grow its business in mobile and fixed-line markets.
