

Photo Release

HGC Wins "The Best Asian Wholesale Offering Award"

Hutchison Global Communications, a wholly owned subsidiary of Hutchison Telecom Hong Kong Holdings, wins "The Best Asian Wholesale Offering Award" organized by Capacity magazine for the second consecutive year. Andrew Kwok, Senior Vice President, International Business of Hutchison Global Communications (Right) has received the award at the "Global Wholesale Telecommunications Awards 2009" ceremony, which has been held in Amsterdam of the Netherlands. Capacity is a leading global telecommunications magazine. The "Global Wholesale Telecommunications Awards" aim to recognize market players who have established themselves at the forefront of the wholesale telecoms industry through applying effective techniques and strategies to their wholesale businesses. The judging panel scored all entrants of "The Best Asian Wholesale Offering Award" on five categories including quality and performance of network, reach of network, speed to market, pricing strategy and investment in network.

For media enquiry, please contact:

Frances Ng / Sarah Leung
Tel: (852) 2128 6739 / (852) 2128 3878
Email: frances.ng@hthk.com / sarah.leung@hthk.com