3Macau launches oleGoK mobile entertainment app exclusively Sing over 10,000 genuine karaoke songs anytime, anywhere

Macau, 29 September, 2014 - 3Macau, the mobile telecommunications operation under Hutchison Telecommunications Hong Kong Holdings Limited (Stock Code: 215), announced that it has partnered with Olevia to launch oleGoK, a new mobile karaoke app exclusively, enabling customers to sing over 10,000 genuine karaoke songs from music labels that include Universal Music, EEG Music, WordStar Music and Fung Hang Record anytime, anywhere by downloading this application through Apple Store(iOS) or Google Play(Android).

Turn a mobile device into a mobile karaoke lounge

The oleGoK app turns a mobile device into a mobile karaoke lounge, transcending geographical restrictions of singing karaoke and allowing customers to act out the most fashionable new attitude on mobile communication and entertainment.

oleGoK has a hot song chart and the song list updates itself automatically from time to time. This enables music fans to sing in the coolest way. Besides, users can make recordings of their own karaoke performances through their smart devices and share the clip immediately on social platforms such as Facebook and YouTube.

Starting from a monthly fee of $49, throw yourself to the world of karaoke song

From now on, 3Macau customers can enjoy the oleGoK application for a monthly fee of $49, or sing popular Cantonese operas for just $88 a month. Customers subscribing to a designated monthly plan will receive a mini lightweight oleGoMic for free. This enables them to throw themselves to the world of karaoke song with their relatives anytime, anywhere. In addition, customers can connect any mobile device or tablet to an external speaker to experience the professional audio mixing effects offered by oleGoMic.
