3 Hong Kong to offer free 5GB data SIM cards at 60+ Hong Kong outlets¹ enabling recipients to enjoy "myTV SUPER" programmes starting 15 March

We believe watching a richness of TV content on mobile devices will prove a big hit in Hong Kong

- Free "myTV SUPER" 5GB data SIM cards will be offered at more than 60 outlets¹, enabling recipients to watch drama shows on a mobile device
- Discounted monthly plans from $39² cover the "myTV SUPER Basic Pack" and TVB Premium SVOD, enabling subscribers to watch all 30 thematic TV channels
- The $68-per-month "myTV SUPER" × "Night Fever" Data Combo provides a hassle-free late-night viewing experience
- Starting 15 March, existing 4G customers (excluding 4G LTE Family Plan customers) subscribing to the "myTV SUPER" × "Night Fever" Data Combo can utilise the service for an extra month

HONG KONG, 7 March 2016 - 3 Hong Kong, the mobile communications division of Hutchison Telecommunications Hong Kong Holdings (HTHKH, stock code: 215), today provided more information on its offer of free "myTV SUPER" 5GB data SIM cards, which will be made available starting 15 March. Recipients will be first to watch an array of programmes from TVB.COM Limited (TVB) via 30 thematic TV channels by using the new paid "myTV SUPER" mobile app on 3 Hong Kong's ultra-fast 4G LTE network. What's more, 3 Hong Kong will launch the "myTV SUPER" × "Night Fever" Data Combo specially designed for customers who like to watch late-night drama shows. The combined effect is likely to set a new trend in mobile TV entertainment.

Free "myTV SUPER" 5GB data SIM card offer opens 15 March

Tens of thousands of "myTV SUPER" 5GB data SIM cards³ will be offered free to the public from more than 60 outlets¹ during business hours, including 3Shop and 3Xpress branches. In order to watch "myTV SUPER" content, holders must activate the SIM card, download the "myTV SUPER" app and register for a one-month trial account before 31 December 2016⁴. They can then access free content that includes Hong Kong, Japanese, Korean and Cantonese dramas, as well as animation, variety shows and children's programmes via 3 Hong Kong's 4G network or Wi-Fi.

After 5GB of free data has been consumed, card holders can top-up the card's value to purchase a local data plan or use Wi-Fi to continue to watch the content during the trial period. Post-trial, card holders can also subscribe to discounted monthly plans to watch "myTV SUPER" programmes. "myTV SUPER" 5GB SIM cards are limited in number and will be distributed on a first-come-first-served basis.

"myTV SUPER" service plans start at just $39² a month

3 Hong Kong customers can opt for a discounted price of $58 a month when subscribing to the "myTV SUPER" Basic Pack and TVB Premium Subscription video-on-demand (SVOD), normally priced at $76. Customers subscribing or upgrading to designated handset plans can get the above-mentioned offering as a value-added service for $39². This will enable them to view more than 11,000 hours of programming from 30 thematic channels⁵ on smart devices via the "myTV SUPER" app - all on an "anytime, anywhere" basis.

The $68-per-month "myTV SUPER" and "Night Fever" Data Combo provides a hassle-free experience for nocturnal drama fans

Starting 15 March, an innovative "Night Fever" Unlimited Data Pack will be made available for a monthly fee of $48. This will grant unlimited 4G data at speeds not less than 1Mbps⁶ from 11pm to 7am every day to meet the needs of nocturnal drama fans.

Select 3 Hong Kong 4G customers (excluding 4G LTE Family Plan customers) subscribing to the "myTV SUPER" and "Night Fever" Data Combo for just $68 a month (normally $106) will have the first month's fee waived. The combo comes complete with the "Night Fever" Unlimited Data Pack, "myTV SUPER" Basic Pack and TVB Premium SVOD - all to provide a hassle-free experience for customers watching drama shows through the night.

Advanced 4G and Wi-Fi networks crucial to new era of mobile TV entertainment

HCHK Chief Operating Officer Jennifer Tan said: "Connectivity between all 3 Hong Kong cell sites and optical-fibre leased lines owned by Hutchison Global Communications has been upgraded to 1Gbps. We are therefore able to deliver an ultra-smooth experience via our advanced 4G network and Hong Kong's largest commercial Wi-Fi deployment of more than 17,000 hotspots."

She added: "We believe watching TV on mobile phones will prove a big hit in Hong Kong, ushering customers into a new era of mobile entertainment comprising rich content made available via 'myTV SUPER', plus a series of promotional activities."
