Hong Kong, 6 November 2023 - SUPREME and 3 Hong Kong, the premium brand and consumer market brand of Hutchison Telecommunications (Hong Kong) Limited (HTHK) announce the launch of the flagship OPPO Find N3 Flip smartphone. HTHK also becomes the first and exclusive* mobile operator to launch the cream gold model in Hong Kong.

Kenny Koo, Executive Director and CEO of Hutchison Telecommunications Hong Kong Holdings Limited (HTHKH), said: "We are delighted to collaborate with OPPO to launch the highly anticipated OPPO Find N3 Flip in Hong Kong. We are honoured to be the first and exclusive mobile telecoms operator to launch the cream gold model which is the trendiest colour for this autumn/winter in Hong Kong. The striking appearance of the OPPO Find N3 Flip, coupled with professional-grade lenses and breakthroughs in various functions, brings a brand-new impact to the foldable phone market. We look forward to customers fully utilising OPPO Find N3 Flip's remarkable capabilities on our ultra-fast 5G network."

Andy Shi, President of OPPO APAC, said: "OPPO is committed to creating outstanding products that deliver cutting-edge technology experiences to users. With the increasing interest in foldable phones and the positive market feedback OPPO has received globally, we have demonstrated that foldable technology is not just a trend but the future. We are delighted to partner with Hutchison Telecom Hong Kong to introduce the OPPO Find N3 series to the dynamic Hong Kong market. With Find N3 series' breakthrough experiences across imaging, design, and usability, we are excited to unlock a new level of foldable experiences, combining creativity, productivity, and self-expression."

Brings together master lenses in a single handset

The OPPO Find N3 Flip excels in portrait photography and stands out as a rare compact foldable phone equipped with triple cameras in the market. It features a folding flagship imaging system composed of a 50-megapixel OIS wide-angle lens, a 48-megapixel ultra-wide-angle lens and a 32-megapixel telephoto lens. All lenses use Sony sensors which significantly improve the night photography quality. Also, Hasselblad-tuned features of the camera enables users to capture photos with captivating details and delicate lighting in master style.

The elegant and stylish Find N3 Flip is available in three distinct colours, including the fashionable and eye-catching cream gold, beautiful and captivating misty pink, and warm and exquisite sleek black. SUPREME and 3 Hong Kong are the first to launch the cream gold model exclusively. The Find N3 Flip features a 3.26-inch vertical outer display with an excellent 17:9 aspect ratio. Users can simply swipe to the left to easily access a rich library of outer display apps without opening the phone. They can quickly reply to messages, schedule appointments, take photos or switch music through the outer display. Additionally, users can customise their frequently used apps on the personalised tools bar on the main page of the outer display for quick and easy access with a single tap, making important information visible at a glance.

The Find N3 Flip is powered by the MediaTek Dimensity 9200 processor which maximise power consumption efficiency with its flagship performance. The phone is also equipped with a 4300mAh large battery capacity within its compact body and can be charged up to 50% in less than half an hour with the 44W SUPERVOOC™ Flash Charging technology.
