ANNOUNCEMENT

Reference is made to the announcement of Lenovo Group limited (the “Company”) dated 27 January 2011 in respect of, among other things, the entering into of the business combination agreement (the “Agreement”) between, among others, the Company, Lenovo (International) B.V. (“Lenovo BV”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and NEC Corporation (“NEC”). Capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meanings as those defined in the Agreement unless the context otherwise requires.

Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company has allotted and issued 281,129,381 shares to NEC (the “Shares”) and obtained from NEC a lock-up undertaking not to sell, transfer, dispose of or otherwise deal with the Shares for a period beginning from the date of Closing (which took place on 1 July 2011) up to and including the date that is 2 years after the date of Closing (the “Lock-up Period”).

The Company hereby announces that Lenovo BV has been requested by NEC to consent to waive the lock-up restriction in respect of the Shares so as to allow NEC to deal with the Shares prior to the expiry of the Lock-up Period. Having taken into account all relevant factors including (i) the business relationship and ongoing cooperation between the Company and NEC, (ii) the financing needs of NEC, (iii) the period that has lapsed since the date of Closing, and (iv) the amount of shares issued to NEC under the Agreement, Lenovo BV granted the consent on 4 September 2012.

By Order of the Board
