      - a. Current and previous names and aliases;
      - b. Principal address (domicile);
      - c. Nationality;
      - d. Full-time and other part-time occupations and duties;
      - e. Certified personal identification documents and their numbers; and
    - 3) The status of the Company's share capital;
    - 4) Annual report;
    - 5) Reports of the aggregate par value, number of shares, and the highest and lowest prices of each series of shares bought back by the Company since the last fiscal year as well as all the expenses paid by the Company therefore; and
    - 6) Minutes of general meetings.
- (VI) Participation in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company upon termination or liquidation at ratio of holding shares;

(VII) Other rights conferred by laws, administrative statutes and these Articles.

The Company may not exercise any power to freeze or infringe, in any other way, the rights carried by any share held by any person who enjoys interests, directly or indirectly, merely for the reason that such person has not disclosed his interests to the Company.

Article 54 A shareholders who desires to access to or obtain the information above mentioned shall deliver the written document which may prove the series and number of the shares he holds. The Company shall provide so as per the shareholder's request aforesaid after having recognized the identification status of the shareholder.

Article 55 The decisions adopted by the shareholder's meeting and the Board that are in violation of laws, administrative statutes shall be invalid.

Article 56 Holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall have the following obligations:

- (1) To abide by these Articles and decisions adopted by the general meetings, maintain the Company for its reputation and support the Company for business development;
- (2) To pay subscription fee on the basis of the shares subscribed by them and the method of capital injection; and
- (3) To liable for the Company's debts to the extent of the shares held without quitting as a shareholder, unless otherwise required by laws and regulations;
- (4) Send expiated notice to the Company's equity registry and the Board to be filed with respect to the change at any time incurred to the legal representative, name of company, place of business, business scope and other material matters of the company as a holder of the Company's shares (except the clearing house or its nominee recognized by Hong Kong laws (the "Recognized Clearing House")) . In terms of the Recognized Clearing House, the change to its authorized signature, name of the company and address shall be noticed to the Company's equity registry for such change upon occurrence.
- (5) Other obligations imposed by laws, administrative statutes and these Articles.

Shareholders shall not bear any liability for further contribution to share capital other than the conditions agreed to by the subscriber of relevant shares at the time of subscription.

Article 57 Any shareholder holding five percent or more of the voting shares of the Company shall report to the Company in writing 3 work days since after the occurrence date of any pledge of the shares held.

Article 58 In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the securities exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed, the controlling shareholders (as defined in the articles hereinafter) may not, in the exercise of their shareholder's powers, make decisions detrimental to the interests of all or part of the shareholders as a result of such exercise of their voting rights on the matters set forth below:

- (1) Relieving a director or supervisor of the responsibility to act honestly in the best interest of the Company;
- (2) Approving a director or supervisor (for his own or another person's benefit) of depriving the Company of its property in any way, including (but not limited to) any opportunities that are favorable to the Company; or
- (3) Approving a director or supervisor (for his own or another person's benefit) of depriving other shareholders of their rights or interests, including (but not limited to) the rights to distributions and voting rights, unless pursuant to a restructuring of the Company submitted to and adopted by the general meeting in accordance with these Articles.

Article 59 The term "controlling shareholder" in the preceding Article shall refer to a person who meets any of the following conditions:

- (1) A person who, acting alone or on concert with others, has the power to elect more than half of the directors;
- (2) A person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise or control such exercise of thirty percent (inclusive) or more of the Company's voting rights;
- (3) A person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds thirty percent (inclusive) or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company; or
- (4) A person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has defacto control of the Company in any other manner.

In terms of the "acting alone or in concert with others" as cited hereinabove, the same shall mean the acquisition by either of two persons and more of the voting rights to vote in respect of the Company by agreement (reached either verbally or in writing) so as to obtain the object to control or enforce such control the Company.

Section 8 General Meetings

Article 60 The general meeting shall mean the authority of the Company and may exercise its powers according to laws.

Article 61 The general meeting may exercise the following powers:

- (1) Decide on the business policies and investment plans of the Company;
- (2) Elect and replace directors who are not representatives of the employees and decide on

- matters concerning the remuneration of directors;
- (3) Elect and replace the supervisors who are not representatives of the employees and decide on the matters regarding the remuneration of supervisors;
  - (4) Examine and approve reports of the Board;
  - (5) Examine and approve reports of the Board of Supervisors;
  - (6) Examine and approve the Company's annual financial budget and final account proposals;
  - (7) Examine and approve the Company's plans for profit distribution and making up losses;
  - (8) Pass resolutions concerning increase or decrease in the Company's registered capital;
  - (9) Pass resolutions on matters such as merger, division, dissolution or liquidation of the Company;
  - (10) Pass resolutions on the Company's issue of debentures;
  - (11) Pass resolutions on the employment, dismissal or refusal of employment of accounting firms by the Company;
  - (12) Amend these Articles;
  - (13) Examine and approve motions proposed by the shareholders who hold three percent (inclusive) and more of the Company's voting shares;
  - (14) Other matters that laws, administrative regulations and these Articles require to be resolved by the general meeting.

Article 62 Without prior approval of the general meeting, the Company may not conclude any contract with any person other than a director, supervisor, president and other officers of the Company for the delegation of the whole business management or important business management of the Company to that person.

Article 63 The general meeting shall include annual shareholder's meeting and extraordinary shareholder's meeting. The general meeting shall be convened by the Board. Annual meeting shall be convened once a year and be held within six months following the preceding fiscal year.

The Board shall convene an extraordinary meeting of shareholders within two months after the occurrence of any of the following circumstance:

- (1) The number of directors is less than the number provided for in the Company Law or less than two-thirds prescribed in these Articles;
- (2) The losses of the Company that have not been made up to reach one third of the total share capital of the Company;
- (3) Shareholder holding ten percent (inclusive) and more of the Company's voting shares required in writing an extraordinary meeting of shareholders to be convened;
- (4) The Board considers that there is a need or the Board of Supervisors proposes a meeting; or
- (5) Two or more independent directors propose a meeting.

Article 64 At least twenty business days' notice in writing (announcement or circular) convening an annual general meeting and at least ten business days' or fifteen day's (whichever is longer) notice in writing (announcement or circular) convening an extraordinary general meeting shall be given to those whose names appear on the register of shareholders, specifying the matters to be examined as well as the date and place of such meetings.

The announcement, notice and circular in relation to, among other things, the disclosable transactions, major transactions, very substantial acquisitions or disposals as well as related party (connected) transactions (as defined in the Listing Rules) which is subject to pre-approval procedures by the stock exchange or the securities regulatory authority, may not be published until they are approved by such a stock exchange or securities regulatory authority.

Article 65 When the Company is to hold an annual general meeting, shareholders who individually or jointly hold three percent (inclusive) and more of the total number of the Company's voting shares shall be entitled to propose motions in writing to the Company. The Company shall include in such meeting's agenda the matters which are referred to in the motions.

Article 66 The motion of the shareholder's general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) Its content doesn't contravene laws and regulations and falls within the scope of business and duties of the general meeting;
- (2) It has specific and detailed matters to be examined at the meeting; and
- (3) It shall be submitted or sent to the Board in writing.

Article 67 The Board shall examine the motions to the general meeting in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders in accordance with the preceding article.

Article 68 For the motion not elected into the shareholder's general meeting's agenda upon its decision, the Board shall explain and give account in respect of the same at such meeting.

Article 69 Shareholders with objection to the Board against its default inclusion of the motions such shareholder deliver into the agenda to the general meeting may ask to convene the extraordinary meeting in accordance with the procedures as prescribed in Article 91 contained herein.

Article 70 The matter without specified onto the meeting notice of an extraordinary general meeting shall not be decided.

Article 71 The notice of a general meeting is required to:

- (1) Be made in writing;

- (2) Bear the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) Record the register date of shareholding of the shareholder who is entitled to attend the meeting;
- (4) State the name and telephone number of the permanent connected person;
- (5) Describe the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (6) Provide to the shareholders the information and explanation for them to make a wise decision on the matters to be discussed. This principle shall apply (but not limited) to the circumstance that when the Company proposes a merger, repurchase of shares, reorganization of share capital or other restructuring, it shall provide the specific conditions and contract (if any) of the transaction under discussion and earnestly explain the cause and result of the transaction;
- (7) Disclose the nature and extent of conflict of interests, if any, of any director, supervisor, president and other officers in any matter to be discussed; provide an explanation of the difference, if any, between the way in which the matter to be discussed would affect such director, supervisor, president and other officers in his capacity as shareholder and the way in which such matter would affect other shareholders.
- (8) Contain the full text
- (9) Contain a conspicuous statement that shareholders entitled to attend and vote have the right to entrust one or more proxies to attend and vote on their behalf and that such proxy needs not be a shareholder;
- (10) State the time and place for the delivery of the meeting's proxy forms.

Article 72 The notice of a general meeting shall be entitled to the shareholders (whether or not entitled to vote thereat) by assigned persons or pre-paid mail (being circular) to the recipient's address shown in the register of shareholders or by being published on the website of the Company. For holders of the Domestic Shares, the notice of a general meeting may also be given by public announcement (being notice).

The public announcement referred to in the preceding Article shall be published on the designated website of the place where the securities of the Company are listed in accordance with the time specified in Article 64. Once the announcement is made, all holders of the Domestic Shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholder's meeting.

The Company shall send the notice in the form of public announcement published on the designated website of the place where the securities of the Company are listed, to the sufficient communication extent, so as to enable the shareholders in Hong Kong to have the time sufficient enough to exercise respective rights or do the acts and things as required in the terms mentioned in such notice.

Article 73 With respect to the notice, materials or written statement of the Company's release communicated to the holders of overseas listed foreign shares, the foregoing shall be sent either by hand or by postage mailed to every holder of such Shares. The notice mailed to the holders of the overseas listed foreign shares shall be sent from Hong Kong in every possible way.

- Article 74 Since after delivery of the notice, the Board shall not change the time to convene the general meeting except force majeure or accidents. If such time is needed to change due to force majeure, the registration date of equity change shall not be changed, accordingly.
- Article 75 Where the meeting notice that had been sent to the person entitled to receive the meeting hasn't been sent so due to omission, or the same person hasn't received the notice yet, the meeting and the decisions made at such meeting shall not be reduced to become null or void merely default of receipt of such meeting notice.
- Article 76 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting shall have the right to appoint one or more persons (who need not be shareholders) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. Such proxy shall by the entrustment by the shareholder have the powers to:
- (1) Speak at the general meeting;
  - (2) Make a resolution by voting, either at sole discretion or in conjunction with others;
  - (3) Vote by raising hands or ballot, except that if a shareholder has appointed more than one proxy, such proxies may only exercise their voting rights by ballot.
- Article 77 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney duly authorized in writing, or if the appointer is a legal entity, either under seal or under the hand of a director or a duly authorized attorney. The letter of authorization in respect to proxy voting shall bear:
- (1) The name of proxy;
  - (2) Voting vested to vote or not;
  - (3) Voting vested to vote the interim business that may possibly included to the agenda at the general meeting; and the instructions to exercise the right of voting where the same right is vested.
  - (4) Issue date of the letter of authorization and term;
  - (5) The appointer's signature (or seal); or the seal representing the legal entity, together with the signature signed by the legal entity's director or its proxy duly authorized or person.
- Article 78 The instrument appointing a voting proxy shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting within 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote or within 24 hours prior to the specified time of the vote. Where the instrument is signed by another person authorized by the entrusting party, the power of attorney or other document authorizing the signature shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorizing document shall be deposited together with the instrument appointing the voting proxy at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

If the appointer shall mean the legal person, its legal representative or the person authorized by resolution of its board of directors or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend the Company's shareholder's meeting as the representative of such legal person. For the purpose of the meeting to attend, the legal representative acting on behalf of its legal person shall present his I.D. certificate and such effective evidence that may prove his qualification in the capacity of such legal person (except the clearing house or its nominee recognized by Hong Kong Laws (hereinafter referred to as the "Clearing House")); the proxy acting on behalf of his appointer as a legal person (except the Clearing House) shall present his I.D. certificate and the written letter of authorization released by the board of directors or decision-making body representing the appointer and by the representative authorized by the appointer by law.

If the stockholder is represented by the Recognized Clearing House, the same may delegate one person or more persons such shareholder thinks eligible to act as the representative on its behalf to attend any general meeting; provided that the letter of authorization in respect of one person and more upon authorization shall bear the number and category of shares involved to such authorization. The person (s) authorized so may represent the Clearing House to exercise rights, as if such person(s) were the Company's individual shareholder.

- Article 79 Any form issued by the Board to the shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholders free choice to instruct their proxies to cast an affirmative or negative vote and enable the shareholders to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted during discussions at the meeting. The instrument of appointment shall specify that in the absence of instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.
- Article 80 The Company is obliged to produce signature register for the meeting attendees. This signature register shall bear the name/designation of shareholder, amount of holding shares or voting shares; name proxy authorized to attend meeting, name/designation of shareholder who entrusts his proxy and more.
- Article 81 Where the entrusting party has died, lost capacity for acts, revoked the proxy or the signed instrument of appointment prior to the voting, or the relevant shares have been transferred prior to the voting, a vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall remain valid as long as the Company did not receive a written notice of the event before the commencement of the relevant meeting.
- Article 82 Resolutions of the general meeting can be ordinary resolutions or special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions of the general meeting shall be passed by more than half of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Special resolutions of the general meeting shall be passed by more than half of the two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Article 83 When shareholders (including proxies) vote at the general meeting, they shall exercise their voting right according to the number of voting shares that they represent. Each share shall have one (1) vote.

Article 84 Votes of the general meeting shall be taken by a show of hands for resolution, unless the provision otherwise specified in the Listing Rules or the following persons require voting by ballot before or after any vote by a show of hands for resolutions:

- (1) The Chairman of the meeting;
- (2) At least two shareholders with voting rights or their proxies; or
- (3) One or more shareholders (including by proxy) who alone or together hold more than ten percent (inclusive) of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless somebody proposes voting by ballot, the Chairman of the meeting shall declare whether the proposal has been adopted according to the results of the vote by a show of hands, and shall record the same in the minutes of the meeting, which shall serve as final evidence without having to state the number or proportion of the votes for or against the resolution adopted at the meeting. The demand for a vote by ballot may be withdrawn by the person who made it.

Article 85 If the matter demanded to be voted upon by ballot is the election of the Chairman or the adjournment of the meeting, a ballot shall be taken immediately. If a ballot is demanded for any other matters, such ballot shall be taken at the time decided upon by the Chairman and the meeting may proceed with the discussion or other matters; the results of the ballot shall still be regarded as a resolution passed at that meeting.

Article 86 When a ballot is held, shareholders (including proxies) having the right to two or more votes need not use all of their voting rights to cast affirmatives or negatives.

Article 87 When the number of votes for and against a resolution is equal, whether the vote is taken by raising hands or by ballot, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one additional vote.

Article 88 The following matters shall be resolved by way of an ordinary resolution of the general meeting:

- (1) Work reports of the Board and the Board of Supervisors;
- (2) Plans for distribution of profits and loss recovery drafted by the Board;
- (3) Removal of members of the Board and the Board of Supervisors, their remuneration;

- (4) The Company's annual budget, final accounts, balance sheet, profit statement and other financial statement; and
- (5) Matter other than those that laws, administrative regulations or these Articles require to be passed by way of a special resolution.

Article 89 The following matters shall be resolved by way of a special resolution of the general meeting:

- (1) Increase or decrease in the Company's share capital and issuance of any series of shares, warrants or other similar securities;
- (2) Repurchase of the Company's shares;
- (3) Issuance of the Company's debentures;
- (4) Division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (5) Amendment of these Articles; and
- (6) Other matters that, as resolved by way of an ordinary resolution of the general meeting, may have a significant impact on the Company and require adoption by way of a special resolution.

Article 90 No related shareholders are allowed to vote by ballot with respect to the related transactions discussed at the shareholder's general meeting. The number of voting shares held by such related shareholders shall not be counted into the grand total of the effective votes.

Where any shareholder is, under the Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on a particular resolution in a class meeting or restricted to voting in favor of or against any particular resolution in a class meeting, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 91 An extraordinary general meeting required either by the Board of Supervisors or shareholders to convene shall proceed in accordance with the procedures set forth below:

- (1) The Board of Supervisors or two or more shareholders holding a total of ten percent (inclusive) or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held may sign one or more written requests of identical form and substance requesting the Board to convene an extraordinary shareholder's general meeting and stating the subject of the meeting. The Board shall convene the shareholder's general meeting as soon as possible after having received the above-mentioned written request. The shareholding referred to above shall be calculated as of the day on which the written request is made; and
- (2) If the Board fails to issue a notice of such a meeting within 30 days after receipt of the written notice aforesaid, then the Board of Supervisors or shareholders who made such request may themselves convene such meeting 4 months since after the Board's receipt of the request. The procedures to convene shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedures the Board convenes the general meetings.

When shareholders convene and hold a meeting because the Board failed to hold such meeting pursuant to a request as mentioned above, the reasonable expenses incurred by such shareholders shall be borne by the Company and shall be deducted from the sums owed by the Company to the negligent directors.

Article 92 The Board of Supervisors or shareholders may transact discretionary action to convene an extraordinary shareholder's general meeting according to the preceding article, if the count of directors is less than the legal minimum numbers as required in the Company Law; the losses on the Company failed to recover has come up to one-third of the aggregate Company's share capital; or the Board has default to convene the extraordinary shareholder's general meeting in the specified period.

Article 93 Except for involving trade secrets of the Company which can not be publicized, the Board and the Board of Supervisors shall make reply or explanation to the objections and proposals delivered by the shareholders.

Article 94 Shareholder's general meeting shall be convened and presided over by the Chairman of the board. Where the Chairman of the Board cannot attend such as meeting for any reason, the meeting shall be convened and presided over by the (a) Vice Chairman of the Board. Where both the Chairman and the Vice Chairman of the Board (or Vice Chairman of the Board) are unable to attend the meeting, the Board may designate a director of the Company to convene and preside over the meeting on its behalf. Where no Chairman is designated, the shareholders attending the meeting may elect one person to preside over the meeting. If for any reason the shareholders are unable to elect a Chairman, the shareholder holding the largest number of voting shares and attending the meeting (whether in person or by proxy) shall preside over the meeting.

An extraordinary general meeting can be transacted to vote at such meeting via communication.

Article 95 The approaches to nominate candidates to act as the director and supervision.

- (1) The director candidates and the candidates acting in the capacity of shareholder representative to the supervisor shall be numbered to the extent permitted under these Articles, and be included in the nominee list, drafted by the Board and the Board of Supervisors , proposed to elect director and supervisor at the number of candidates proposed to elect;
- (2) Supervisor's candidate acting in the capacity the Company's employee representative shall be nominated by the Company's Union;
- (3) A nomination committee shall assess these candidates nominated to act as director and supervisor to review qualifications and conditions as initial review. Candidates deemed as eligible shall be referred to the Board and the Board of Supervisors for further review. Upon decision adopted by the Board and the Board of Supervisors, details of these candidates shall be delivered to the general meeting as business in writing. The Board and the Board of Supervisors shall provide CV and profile information with regard to these candidates;

- (4) Candidates with respect to the nomination to act as director and supervisor shall be voted one by one at the general meeting;
- (5) In case the number of director and supervisor is added, the Board and the Board of Supervisors shall bring forward such addition to be elected or replaced at the general meeting with the exception to Article 104 paragraph 4.

Article 96 Resolution made at the general meeting shall be subject to the Chairman of meeting to decide for adoption or not. The Chairman's decision shall be final and be carried onto the meeting minutes.

Article 97 Where the delivered results in respect to some resolution created from voting are held in doubt, the meeting Chairman may ask to count votes; where the shareholders (their proxies) attending the meeting hold objections to the meeting Chairman upon his statement declared for the results without prior transaction of counting, these shareholders (their proxies) have the right to ask counting, and the meeting Chairman shall immediately arrange to count so.

Article 98 In case of vote counting, the counts created from votes cast at the shareholder's general meeting shall be carried onto the meeting minutes.

Article 99 The minutes with respect to the general meeting shall be recorded and signed by the directors attending such meeting and minutes' recorder. The minutes shall be filed with the Company and kept by the Secretary of the Board. The minutes shall be kept for 5 years.

Items to be carried onto the minutes of the shareholder's general meeting shall be:

- (1) Number of shares to vote at the shareholder's general meeting and the ratio of such shares in the grand total of the Company's shares;
- (2) Time and place of meeting to convene;
- (3) Name of person who presides over the meeting, and meeting agenda;
- (4) Speech points delivered by speaker in discussion of every transaction at the meeting;
- (5) Voting results of every transaction upon voting;
- (6) ( 6 ) Shareholder's opinions with respect to objections and proposals thereto, together with the reply or statement given by the Board and the Board of Supervisors in respect to such objections and proposals;
- (7) Other contents deemed by the general meeting and pursuant to these Articles to be carried onto the meeting minutes.

Article 100 The meeting minutes, together with the signature register for the shareholders present at the meeting and the letter of authorization representing proxy attendee shall be filed with the Company's domicile.

Article 101 The matters in respect to the shareholder's general meeting to be notarized shall include the number of meeting attendees, number of shares held by shareholders present at the meeting, results of voting against every business transacted, minutes and the legality of meeting procedures.

Article 102 Shareholder may access to the minutes with respect to the general meeting in printed copy at any time during the Company's business hours. For the purpose of these minutes to the shareholder's general meeting, the printed copy thereto required by any shareholder to the Company to deliver shall be sent 7 days upon receipt of the Company's reasonable costs in respect to such printed copy.

Section 9 Board of Directors

Article 103 There shall be a Board of Directors (the "Board") that consists of 11 members, 1 Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board each and 4 independent directors.

The Board shall be independent from the controlling organizations (defined herein as those corporations, enterprises, or institutions with the status of legal person which control the Company).

The Board shall have at least one-third of independent directors (defined as those directors who are independent to the shareholders and don't hold office in the Company), among which at least one must possess accounting or financial management expertise.

Article 104 Director of the Board may hold office for 3 (three) years and may reelect after expiry of the previous term of office.

The Chairman and the Vice Chairman of the Board shall be elected and removed by affirmative votes of majority of all the members of the Board. The Chairman and the Vice Chairman of the Board shall serve a term of 3 (three) years and may serve consecutive terms if reelected upon expiry of the previous tenure.
