Chairman's Statement

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the board of Directors (the "Board") of Pan Asia Data Holdings Inc. (the "Company"), I would like to review the performance of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively the "Group") for the year ended 31 December 2022 in retrospect and put the Group's prospect in the future into perspective.

In 2022, China rolled out a series of guidance documents on digital transformation, which substantially promoted the development of big data analysis and digital business operation industry. The People's Bank of China issued the FinTech Development Plan (2022-2025), placing a priority on accelerating the digital transformation of financial institutions while focusing on the technology-driven development and data empowerment of financial innovation. The CPC Central Committee and the State Council issued the Opinions on Building a Basic Data System to Better Play the Role of Data Elements (《關於構建數據基礎制度更好發揮數據要素作用的意見》), aiming to provide top-level design plans and basic system arrangements for the data element market, promote the development of digital economy, and create new momentum to China's economic development. Against this backdrop, financial institutions accelerated their digital and intelligent transformation, bringing opportunities for big data analytics providers/fintech companies in the financial sector.

However, on the other hand, due to the impact of the pandemic, the revenue growth of China's consumer credit industry declined in 2022. The growth rate of the number of banking accounts and the number of cards per capita has been slowing down in the past few quarters, and the development of incremental business has slowed down as a whole. The development of China's retail financial market faces difficulties in growth, and it is in urgent need to explore new growth points through digital and intelligent transformation, expand the coverage and application scenarios of digital business, and keep up with market changes and customer needs.

During the period, Lian Yang Guo Rong Holdings Limited ("LYGR") with its onshore operation subsidiary as the Group's flagship in big data analytics (the "OPCO") benefited from the strategic layout and compliant expansion in the early stage. Against the backdrop of the overall weak growth in consumer credit, the OPCO has achieved growth, with significant improvement in product competitiveness and market share. The independent SaaS/PaaS cloud platform established by the OPCO focuses on the digital transformation needs of personal credit and insurance industries, and improves the digital operation and management capabilities of financial institutions with artificial intelligence empowered algorithm solutions applied to retail finance. As of the end of 2022, the OPCO has successfully acquired a large number of customers contributing to its core income, including major banks, leading licensed consumer finance companies and large-scale personal credit digital transformation providers in China, and has become a core supplier of leading institutions in the consumer credit market, achieving a total revenue of HK$397 million for the year, representing an increase of over 80% as compared to that in 2021.

In addition, in order to fully grasp the market opportunities arising from the strengthened regulation, policy support and economic recovery, the Company has always adhered to product research and development and team building. On the one hand, the artificial intelligence empowered algorithm solutions established by the OPCO require constant updates and improvement to cater for the needs of business and customers, so as to improve the core competitiveness of our products. On the other hand, the Company also continued to expand the application of artificial intelligence empowered algorithm solutions in the field of diversified financial business, and extended the core competitiveness of our products to more extensive business scenarios to further establish a foothold in the market of digital transformation for financial institutions. Looking forward, the Company is confident to firmly grasp the benefits brought by relevant policies and market development, enhance its competitive barriers and market position by leveraging its advantages in compliance, technical capabilities and profound industry insights it accumulated, become a leading enterprise in the field of financial technology and empower the digital and strategic transformation and development of finance industry in China.

Chairman's Statement

On behalf of the Board, I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to our staff and management team for their outstanding contributions to the Company, and to all shareholders for their unwavering support and trust. We are always committed to being an innovator of intelligent data application, a provider of artificial intelligence technology, and an enabler of FinTech, to create greater and long-term value for our customers and shareholders.

Gu Zhongli
Chairman

Management Discussion and Analysis

This acquisition of control of LYGR Group was completed on 2 June 2021 (the “Completion Date”) and it is classified as investment in subsidiaries. During the year ended 31 December 2022, LYGR Group benefited from the strategic layout and compliant expansion in the early stage. Against the backdrop of the overall weak growth in consumer credit, LYGR Group has achieved growth, with significant improvement in product competitiveness and market share. The independent SaaS/PaaS cloud platform established by LYGR Group focuses on the digital transformation needs of personal credit and insurance industries, and improves the digital operation and management capabilities of financial institutions with artificial intelligence empowered algorithm solutions applied to retail finance. As of 31 December 2022, LYGR Group has successfully acquired a large number of customers contributing to its core income, including major banks, leading licensed consumer finance companies and large-scale personal credit digital transformation providers in China, and has become a core supplier of leading institutions in the consumer credit market. The Big Data Services Segment contributed revenue of approximately HK$397,021,000 (from the Completion Date to 31 December 2021: HK$172,835,000), which represented an increase of approximately 129.7% and the segment profit increased to approximately HK$29,448,000 (from the Completion Date to 31 December 2021: HK$17,664,000) for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Third-Party Payment Services Business

Day’s Enterprise Company Limited* (得仕股份有限公司) (“Days Services”), a member of the Group and a non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, operates a digital payment platform, which provides third-party payment services through the following services and products, namely, (1) Internet payment services, (2) prepaid card issue and management services and (3) others (the “Third-Party Payment Services Segment”).

The Third-Party Payment Services Segment contributed revenue of approximately HK$44,892,000 (2021: HK$26,729,000), which represented an increase of approximately 68.0%, and the segment loss decreased to approximately HK$21,299,000 (2021: HK$691,419,000) for the year ended 31 December 2022.

During the year ended 31 December 2022, there was a recovery in the business activities of the Group’s Third-Party Payment Services Segment. The third-party payment transaction volume processed for the year ended 31 December 2022 increased significantly as compared to that of the corresponding period in 2021. The significant increase in business activities was mainly attributable to (i) the active business expansion pursued by the new management team in compliance with relevant laws and regulations and (ii) the massive shift in consumption from offline merchants to the internet in the first half of the year due to the pandemic, which stimulated growth in online consumption.

Days Services holds a license issued by the People’s Bank of China (“PBOC”) authorising the provision of third-party payment services in the PRC (the “Payment License”) which expired on 28 August 2021. An application had been made for a renewal of the Payment License. On 29 August 2021, Days Services was informed that the PBOC had decided to suspend the review process pending further clarification and/or verification of certain information in relation to Days Services suitability to continue to be a licensee, and will resume the review process of the renewal afterwards. In the meantime, Days Services has obtained confirmation from the PBOC that Days Services is permitted to conduct its business as usual.

The Company will continue to monitor the situation and updates will be announced as soon as further material information becomes available. In view of the negative contributions derived from the Third-Party Payment Services Segment over the past year, the Company is also considering other available options, including but not limited to, a disposal of its entire interest in this segment.

Other gains of the Group increased to approximately HK$19,573,000 (2021: HK$5,223,000) for the year ended 31 December 2022, primarily due to increase in net exchange gain, gain on fair value change of financial assets at fair value through profit and loss and gain on fair value change of convertible bonds.

Distribution and selling expenses of the Group increased to approximately HK$88,726,000 (2021: HK$58,136,000) for the year ended 31 December 2022, mainly due to increase in advertising expenses and staff costs from Big Data Services Segment, which commenced in June 2021.

Administrative expenses of the Group decreased to approximately HK$172,821,000 (2021: HK$216,494,000) for the year ended 31 December 2022. The decrease was mainly attributable to decrease in directors' emoluments and share-based payment expenses.

Management Discussion and Analysis

LYGR CGU

On 11 February 2021, the Group entered into a sale and purchase agreement with a shareholder of LYGR, pursuant to which the Group agreed to purchase 23.33% of the equity interest in LYGR for a consideration of approximately HK$93,294,000. Upon the completion of such acquisition on 2 June 2021, LYGR became a 54.22% indirectly owned subsidiary of the Company. As a result of purchase price allocation, the Group recognised a goodwill of approximately HK$114,545,000 and other intangible assets of approximately HK$259,875,000 from this acquisition during the year ended 31 December 2021. The Directors consider LYGR as a cash-generating unit (“CGU”) (the “LYGR CGU”) and the goodwill and other intangible assets were allocated to the LYGR CGU.

In assessing and evaluating the impairment of LYGR’s goodwill and other intangible assets, the Company engaged an independent external professional qualified valuer (the “Valuer”) to conduct a valuation of the fair value of the LYGR Group as at 31 December 2022. Given that (i) the recoverable amount of an asset or a cash-generating unit is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use according to HKAS 36; and (ii) the Company had increasing visibility on the financial projections of the LYGR Group, the Company and the Valuer adopted both an income approach, specifically the discounted cash flow method to derive the value in use of the LYGR Group, and a market approach, specifically the comparable company method, to derive the fair value of LYGR as at 31 December 2022 (the “2022 Impairment Valuation”).

Key assumptions adopted in income approach for the 2022 Impairment Valuation include (1) the average revenue growth rate of the LYGR Group between the Financial Year (“FY”) of 2023 and FY2027 of approximately 24.5%; (2) gross profit margin of the LYGR Group between FY2023 and FY2027, ranging from approximately 68.9% to 83.6%; (3) net profit margin of the LYGR Group between FY2023 and FY2027, ranging from approximately 2.6% to 31.0%; (4) terminal growth rate of 2.0%; and (5) pre-tax discount rate of 20.5%.

Key assumptions adopted in market approach include (1) average Price/Sales (“P/S ratio”) of the comparable companies of approximately 4.15, (2) discount for lack of marketability (“DLOM”) of approximately 20.60%, (3) a control premium of approximately 37.00%, and (4) the actual consolidated revenue of LYGR for the year ended 31 December 2022 of approximately HK$397,021,000.

Based on the 2022 Impairment Valuation, the recoverable amount of the LYGR CGU, which was determined based on fair value less costs of disposal, is higher than the carrying amount. The Company therefore did not record any impairment of LYGR’s goodwill and other intangible assets during the year ended 31 December 2022.

In the review of methods and assumptions adopted by the Valuer for the 2022 Impairment Valuation of LYGR’s goodwill and other intangible assets, the Company has taken into account the following factors:

Market Approach

The Company noted that the selection criteria (the “Selection Criteria”) for comparable companies included, amongst others: (1) the comparable companies which are in the industry of big data services and related business worldwide and the relevant information of comparable companies is searchable in a global data base maintained by an independent service provider, namely Bloomberg; (2) the comparable companies which are having similar nature and level of competition; and (3) the comparable companies which are having similar characteristics of driving underlying investment risk and expected rate of return.

Based on the above-mentioned Selection Criteria, a list of comparable companies satisfying the above criteria was selected by the Valuer on a best effort basis and eight comparable companies were identified.

The information of the comparable companies is publicly available, and based on the Selection Criteria, they are comparable to LYGR Group. Accordingly, the Directors are of the view that they are fair and representative samples.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Further, in relation to the key assumptions used for the market approach, the Company discussed with the Valuer and understands that:

- DLOM reflects the fact that there is no ready market for shares in a closely held company. As such, the Valuer has assessed the DLOM by making reference to “Stout Restricted Stock Study: Companion Guide (2021 Edition)”. The overall DLOM is approximately 20.60%.
- Control premium is the amount that a buyer is willing to pay over the minority equity value of the company in order to acquire a controlling interest in that company. Adjustment for control is made by the application of a control premium to the value of the target’s shares. The paper “Control Premium Study (2021)” by RSM suggested approximately 37.00%, which is considered appropriate and suitable for this valuation based on the Valuer’s professional judgement.
- The Valuer also took into account the consolidated revenue of the LYGR Group for the year ended 31 December 2022 for assessing the LYGR Group’s fair value.

The Company considers that the selection basis and criteria, as well as the key assumptions adopted were fair and reasonable.

Income Approach

The Company noted that the Valuer primarily took into account the financial budget and forecast prepared by management of the LYGR Group when adopting the income approach for valuation, with reference to (1) the average revenue growth rate of the LYGR Group between FY2023 and FY2027; (2) gross profit margin of the LYGR Group between FY2023 and FY2027; (3) net profit margin of the LYGR Group between FY2023 and FY2027; (4) terminal growth rate; and (5) pre-tax discount rate. When assessing the fairness and reasonableness of this valuation methodology, the Company reviewed the internal control procedures in formulating and reviewing the financial budgets and forecast prepared, which includes the following:

- (a) the product team of the LYGR Group assessed and estimated certain key performance indicators including consumption volume of big data services and an expected revenue based on the fees per unit charged by the LYGR Group to their customers; and
- (b) the finance team of the Company further assessed the accuracy and reasonableness of the financial budgets and forecast initially proposed by the LYGR Group and submitted the same to the Board for final review.

The Company also considered the financial performance of comparable companies in the market to assess and evaluate the reasonableness of the LYGR Group’s financial budgets and forecast.

Management Discussion and Analysis

PROSPECTS AND STRATEGIES

In 2022, due to the impact of the pandemic, the revenue growth of China's consumer credit industry declined in 2022. The growth rate of the number of banking accounts and the number of cards per capita has been slowing down in the past few quarters, and the development of incremental business has slowed down as a whole.

However, in terms of financial and digital economy regulatory policies, the digital transformation market finally ushered in substantial progress. The CPC Central Committee and the State Council issued the Opinions on Building a Basic Data System to Better Play the Role of Data Elements, aiming to provide top-level design plans and basic system arrangements for the data element market, promote the development of digital economy, and create new momentum to China's economic development. Against this backdrop, financial institutions accelerated their digital and intelligent transformation, bringing opportunities for big data analytics providers/fintech companies in the financial sector.

The Group's big data analytics business in the financial sector has established a first-mover advantage and accumulated a solid foundation. In 2022, the Group developed at a faster pace and achieved satisfactory results and market reputation.

Insisting on Research and Development, Stepping up Innovation, and Deepening the Big Data Analytics Business with Remarkable Results

Benefiting from the strategic layout and compliant expansion in the early stage, LYGR with its onshore operation subsidiary as the Group's flagship in big data analytics (the "OPCO") has achieved growth against the backdrop of the overall weak growth in consumer credit, with significant improvement in product competitiveness and market share.

The independent SaaS/PaaS cloud platform established by the OPCO focuses on the digital transformation needs of personal credit and insurance industries, and improves the digital operation and management capabilities of financial institutions with artificial intelligence-empowered algorithm solutions applied to retail finance. As of the end of 2022, the OPCO has successfully acquired a large number of customers contributing to its core income, including major banks, leading licensed consumer finance companies and large-scale personal credit digital transformation providers in China, and has become a core supplier of leading institutions in the consumer credit market, achieving a total revenue of HK$397 million for the year.

Looking forward, we will continue to adhere to allocating our investment in research and development, stepping up innovation and development, and deepening the big data analytics business segment to further strengthen the Group's competitive barriers and market position in the financial technology sector. On the one hand, the artificial intelligence-empowered algorithm solutions established by the OPCO require constant updates and improvement to cater for the needs of business and customers, so as to improve the core competitiveness of our products. On the other hand, the Company also continued to expand the application of artificial intelligence-empowered algorithm solutions in the field of diversified financial business, and extended the core competitiveness of our products to more extensive business scenarios to further establish a foothold in the market of digital transformation for financial institutions. We are always committed to being an innovator of intelligent data application, a provider of artificial intelligence technology, and an enabler of FinTech, so that the use of data elements and artificial intelligence technology has become a strong driving force for national economic development and social progress.

Management Discussion and Analysis

2023 will definitely be a year full of opportunities and challenges, thanks to the benefits brought by the relevant policies and the economic recovery. The opening up of the data element market will engage more institutions to participate, and the intensity of market competition will increase significantly. In addition, while embracing digital transformation, financial institutions will also firmly manage compliance risks and regulate the operation and management of digital business with a stricter data security and privacy protection mechanism. The Group has accumulated stable income from core customers by virtue of its advantages in compliance, technical capabilities and profound industry insights, and believes that it can stand out in the fierce market competition in 2023.

At the same time, in order to drive and enhance the long-term value for our shareholders against the backdrop of the aforementioned development of big data analytics, we will continue to conduct regular reviews on the business operations and financial position of the Group under the ever-changing economic ecosystem and market conditions. Subject to such reviews, the Group may explore and consider rationalization and optimization of the Group's resource allocations, including any asset disposals, synergetic asset acquisitions, spins-offs, fund raisings etc. in order to position, materialize and accelerate the long-term growth potential of the Group. Should any of these opportunities materialize, further announcement(s) will be made in accordance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

The main features of the risk management and internal control systems are to provide a clear governance structure, policies and procedures, as well as reporting mechanism to facilitate the Group to manage its risks across business operations.

The Group has established a risk management framework, which consists of the Board, the Audit Committee and a Risk Management Taskforce. The Board is responsible for, and determines, the nature and extent of risks that shall be taken in achieving the Group's strategic objectives, and has the overall responsibility for monitoring the design, implementation and the overall effectiveness of risk management and internal control systems.

The Group has formulated and adopted the Risk Management Policy to provide direction in identifying, evaluating and managing significant risks. At least on an annual basis, the Risk Management Taskforce identifies risks that would adversely affect the achievement of the Group's objectives, and assesses and prioritizes the identified risks according to a set of standard criteria. Risk mitigation plans and risk owners are then established for those risks considered to be significant.

Corporate Governance Report

As the Group has no in-house internal audit function, the Group has engaged an external professional advisor to assist the Board and the Audit Committee in ongoing monitoring of the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems of the Group, and ensures that a review of the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems of the Company and its subsidiaries for each financial year will be conducted at least annually. Deficiencies in the design and implementation of internal controls are identified and recommendations are proposed for improvement. Significant internal control deficiencies are reported to the Audit Committee and the Board on a timely basis to ensure prompt remediation actions are taken.

The key processes that have been established in reviewing the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems include the following:

- a. The Remuneration Committee was established to ensure all the Directors and the senior management of the Group are remunerated in line with market terms and individual performance.
- b. The Audit Committee reviews internal control issues identified by external auditor, external professional advisor, regulatory authorities and management, and evaluates the adequacy and effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems. To further enhance control awareness, the Group has also approved launching a whistleblowing policy for employees to raise any concerns about possible improprieties in any matter related to the Group.
- c. The corporate reporting functions are delegated to the accounting department in terms of proper and regular reviews on the deployment of resources and financial reporting systems. The corporate governance practices and compliance with the Listing Rules, the SFO and other applicable regulations are delegated to the company secretarial department.
- d. Every newly appointed director is provided with a comprehensive handout detailing the responsibilities and duties of being a director of the Company, in particular highlighting the respective applicable rules and regulations including the Listing Rules, of which a director should aware and be informed on appointment by the Company.

Risk management reports and internal control reports are submitted to the Audit Committee and the Board at least once a year. The Board considers the Group's risk management and internal control systems are effective and adequate.

The risk management and internal control systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

Materiality Assessment

ESG issues that are pertinent to the Group and its stakeholders are identified through materiality assessment, which is a crucial step in developing the sustainability strategy. The Group has identified ESG issues that have potential or actual impact on its sustainable development from various sources, such as issues identified in previous ESG reports, internal policies, industry trends and the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board's Materiality Map². The ESG issues have been analysed with reference to an array of factors, including the Group's overall strategy, development, and goals and targets. Our approach to the materiality assessment is as follows:

Identification of material ESG issues	We engaged our business functions through internal meetings, daily communication and questionnaires to identify and assess materiality of relevant ESG issues of our business as well as our stakeholders.
Prioritization of the ESG issues	The ESG issues were discussed and prioritized by the ESG Working Group in terms of economic, environmental and social impacts to the Group.
Validation of the material ESG issues	The material ESG issues would be summarized in this ESG Report after the Board endorsed the prioritization result.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The results of the materiality assessment on the identified ESG issues are summarised as below:

ENVIRONMENTAL

Overview

The Group's business is principally divided into three streams, namely (1) big data services, (2) third-party payment services, and (3) customized liquid and powder coatings manufacturing. Owing to the business nature, third-party payment services and big data services do not produce a considerable amount of gas and chemicals, rendering the impacts on the environment mainly originated from the electricity purchased. Whereas for coatings manufacturing, environmental impacts are comparatively more significant. Production of gaseous emissions, paper waste, purchased electricity and water, and other types of waste influence the environment directly and indirectly. The Group notes the importance of environmental protection and follows the principle of sustainable development in its daily operations in an attempt to improve the environmental awareness of its employees and to build a sustainable environment. Our production plant in Guangzhou has established an environmental management system and relevant policies and procedures for coating business that meet the international industry specific environmental standards and obtained ISO 14001:2015 certification.

The Group keeps abreast of environmental protection and the relevant laws, including but not limited to Environmental Protection Law (《環境保護法》), Law on Air Pollution and Control (《大氣污染防治法》), Water Pollution and Control Law (《水污染防治法》), Solid Waste Pollution Prevention and Control Law (《固體廢物污染環境防治法》), and Energy Conservation Law (《節約能源法》). When applicable, the Group strives to comply with the aforementioned laws, fulfilling its obligations. During the Reporting Period, the Group continues to monitor the development of the 14th Five Year Plan (《“十四五”規劃》) of the PRC, where all of the Group's Business Units locate. The Group strives to keep track of relevant issues, such as capping carbon emissions at sectoral and regional levels, and introducing renewables into the energy mix of the PRC.

Air Emissions

During the Reporting Period, the Group's air emissions derive mainly from its self-owned vehicles and gas cooking stoves used in the canteen. As compared to the previous reporting period, there was a decrease in Nitrogen Oxides ("NO_x"), Sulphur Oxides ("SO_x") and Particular Matter ("PM") emissions, which dropped by 46%, 28% and 59% respectively. The plunge is mainly because of a decrease in the number of vehicles owned by the Group. To uphold the principles of sustainable development, the Group is committed to reducing or maintaining air emissions between 90% to 120% of the level of the baseline year ended 31 December 2022 in the next reporting period.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Detailed quantity of air pollutants produced by the Group:

NO _x	Tonnes	0.10	0.18
SO _x	Tonnes	0.00023	0.00031
PM	Tonnes	0.005	0.012

Greenhouse Gas Emissions

Direct greenhouse gas emissions mainly come from the combustion of fuels by vehicles and in stationary sources. Indirect emissions derive principally from purchased electricity and paper disposal.

Detailed breakdown of Greenhouse Gas (“GHG”) Emissions by the Group:

Scope 1³
Combustion of fuels in generators:	Tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent	14.65	49.98
Combustion of fuels in vehicles:	Tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent	38.95	55.82
Combustion of fuels in gas cooking stoves:	Tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent	23.06	20.07
Total	Tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent	76.66	125.87
Scope 2
Electricity ⁴	Tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent	1,648.73	1,826.81
Scope 3
Waste Paper	Tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent	14.10	6.24
Total Emissions	Tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent	1,739.49	1,958.92
Emissions Intensity	Tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent/ Per thousand Hong Kong Dollar of revenue	0.0021	0.0032

During the Reporting Period, the GHG emission intensity of the Group has decreased by 35%, which the target has achieved. To uphold the principles of sustainable development, the Group is committed to reducing or maintaining the total GHG emission intensity between 90% to 120% for the next reporting period, against the level of the baseline year ended 31 December 2022, through adopting the mitigating measures detailed in the subsection headed “Energy Use Efficiency”.

³ Emissions include Carbon Dioxide (“CO₂”), Methane (“CH₄”), Nitrous Oxide (“N₂O”).

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Waste Management

Hazardous wastes include chemical wastes, coating scrap, and sludge from wastewater treatment plant generated from manufacturing. Non-hazardous wastes include waste paper, food wraps and stationery.

Detailed information on hazardous and non-hazardous wastes generated by the Group:

Type	Year ended 31 December 2022	Intensity	Year ended 31 December 2021	Intensity
Hazardous Waste	28 tonnes	0.000038 (per KG of coating product manufactured)	23 tonnes	0.000028 (per KG of coating product manufactured)
Non-hazardous Waste	101 tonnes	0.00012 (per thousand Hong Kong Dollar of revenue)	101 tonnes	0.00017 (per thousand Hong Kong Dollar of revenue)

During the Reporting Period, the production of hazardous waste and non-hazardous waste intensity of the Group increased by 36% and decreased by 28% respectively. It indicated that the target for hazardous waste is not achieved, while the target for non-hazardous waste is achieved. Our Group will target to reduce or maintain the production of hazardous waste and non-hazardous waste intensity between 90% to 120% for the next reporting period, against the level of the baseline year ended 31 December 2022.

Wastewater Discharge

From 2021 onwards, wastewater was directly discharged into the municipal drainage network, and thus there was no independent data for sewage discharge during the Reporting Period. Nevertheless, uncontrolled discharge is strictly prohibited by the Group, and it will make a continuous effort to minimize the amount of sewage discharged.

Measures to Reduce Waste Generation

Handling hazardous wastes is restricted by guidelines: (1) hazardous wastes are identified and stored in a different warehouse from non-hazardous waste; (2) licensed waste collectors are recruited to transfer the hazardous wastes away. The Group has also established a quality control mechanism to explore measures that reduce coating scrap.

Aiming to minimize the production of waste, the Group actively initiates a series of Green Office practices, intending to influence employees to decrease their use of paper. The Group promotes the four “R” actions in environmental protection (Reduce, Reuse, Recycle, Replace) in daily operation. For example, the Group sets up double-sided printing as the default mode in all printers and encourages employees to reuse single-sided paper when no confidential information is present. To further decrease the use of paper, communicating online is encouraged instead of communicating through documentation.

Use of Resources

The Group is committed to becoming a resource-saving and environmental-friendly enterprise to promote environmental protection, and is working actively to reduce the usage of resources, as well as emissions. The Group’s energy consumption mainly derives from purchased electricity, fuels for self-owned vehicles, operations of machinery and gas cooking stoves.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Detailed information of energy consumed by the Group:

Electricity	Kilowatt hour ("kWh")	2,890,988	0.3905	2,994,280	0.3634
Diesel	Litre	10,482	0.0014	19,100	0.0023
Petrol	Litre	9,591	0.0013	20,965	0.0025
LPG	kg	7,643	0.0010	6,652	0.0008

During the Reporting Period, the Group recorded a decrease in the intensity of diesel and petrol consumption, which the target has been achieved. Meanwhile, there was an increase in the intensity of electricity and LPG consumption mainly due to (i) the usage of gas cooking stoves was not shared with the external service provider. Considering the difficulty in predicting the future regulatory requirements and operational arrangement, the Group will target to reduce or maintain the energy consumption intensity between 90% to 130% for the next reporting period, against the level of the baseline year ended 31 December 2022, given that there is no power restriction or the period of restriction imposed remains similar, or there is no sudden change in the operational arrangement.

Water Usage

As water is one of the most precious resources in the world, cherishing water consumption is the fundamental target of the Group. The Group had always encouraged the reduction of unnecessary water consumption. The existing water supply is stable and meets the Group's daily operational needs, thus no issue with sourcing water is identified.

The water consumption of the Group's Shanghai office for third-party payment services and Beijing office for big data services are included in the property management fees. Accordingly, the water consumption figures below only include the consumption in the Group's coatings manufacturing business, which was charged separately.

Detailed information on water consumed by the Group:

Energy Use Efficiency

The Group promotes the ideology of water conservation among employees. In order to effectively reduce the indirect energy consumption for water supply, a water recycling system is implemented in factories to reuse water. Filtered wastewater is also used for floor cleaning to avoid wastage. Dysfunctional water faucets are repaired promptly to prevent further leakage and wastage of fresh water.

For electricity and other kinds of energy, the Group monitors machinery with an abnormally high consumption rate of electricity. Regular inspections are also performed to prevent unusual operations of machinery, that may lead to higher fuel consumption. The Group promotes reasonable use of vehicles to minimize fuel combusted from driving. In offices, computers and office lights are switched off during non-business hours to minimize light pollution and reduce energy consumption. The traditional fluorescent tubes were replaced by LED lights to further enhance energy efficiency. Looking ahead, the Group will continue to make efforts in reducing energy consumption and keep up the pace of energy conservation.

Packaging Material

During the Reporting Period, the usage of packaging materials decreased. As the Group sought thinner and lighter packaging materials, the intensity of packaging materials used decreased as well. The Group aims to further reduce the packaging materials by regularly reviewing the packing process.

Detailed information on packaging materials used by the Group:

Packaging materials	Tonnes	619.90	0.000084	782.30	0.000095

The Environment and Natural Resources

The Group contends that corporate development should not come at the expense of the environment, and ensures that it minimizes its carbon footprints by constantly monitoring the use of resources and adhering to relevant laws.

Dust

The Group obtained the ISO-14001:2015 certificate, which is related to environmental management systems, for its production plants in Shenzhen and Guangzhou. To reduce the dust produced during the process of raw material delivery, an air filtering system is presented at the conveyor, hopper and other equipment used for transferring, loading and unloading raw materials. Bag filters process dust in the air, which is then released to the dust collector.

Noise

With regards to the noise produced, production processes resulting in high noise volume are restricted to run in a closed area, where residential areas are distant. Maintenance of production machinery is conducted regularly to avoid malfunctions that may lead to higher noise volume.

Environmental Coating Products

On top of that, Environmental Factor Identification and Evaluation Control Procedures are adopted for the coating business. The Group identifies important material environment factors found in operations, products and services. These factors are then recorded in Environmental Factor Register for proper monitoring and circulation among relevant employees. As such, the Group hopes to minimize the impacts it poses on the environment and promote sustainability in the long run.

The Group is conscious of the importance of health, striving to protect its employees from occupational health issues resulting from the work environment. For third-party payment services and big data services, employees who have worked for the Group for more than one year are eligible for annual health checks. On the other hand, due to the business nature of coatings manufacturing, employees are comparatively more susceptible to work-related health and safety issues. Manufacturing employees may have contact with hazardous chemicals, varieties of solvents, flammable and combustible materials, and corrosive materials. The Group is aware of the risks exposed to its employees and endeavours to reduce, if not avoid, the occurrence of incidents associated with the abovementioned substances. Hence, employees are entitled to body checks before official employment, during employment, and at resignation. The body checks cover occupational diseases related to hazardous substances such as toluene (甲苯) and xylene (二甲苯), noise exposure and dust. Apart from these specifically purposed body checks, manufacturing employees are also entitled to regular body checks before official employment and during employment. Tailor-making different scopes and coverage of health checks, the Group hopes to provide all-round protection for all its employees, regardless of their positions and streams of business.

The Group protects the safety of its employees and subcontractors through its robust Safety Management System. On top of the health checks, the Group reckons that prevention is better than cure. To tackle the root cause of health and safety issues, the Group established chapters inside the Employee Handbook to cover topics such as fire safety intended to reduce the destruction caused by fire, different categories of hazardous substances, preventive and contingency measures of chemical burns and dust contacts, images of labour protection supply to familiarize employees, to name but a few. As such, the Group intends to instil essential work-related knowledge into its manufacturing employees, thus increasing their consciousness and encouraging them to stay alert potential safety issues. We are certified with the international Occupational Health and Safety Management System Standard ISO 45001:2018 for our coating business during the Reporting Period for our efforts in safeguarding occupational health and safety.

For third-party payment services, a sound, adequate understanding of online payments and on relevant compliance issues is the basis of the job routine. For coatings manufacturing, occupational health and safety, standard operating procedures for handling industrial substances and knowledge of the risks of chemicals are vital for employees' careers. Whereas for big data services, knowledge of information technology in relation to retail financial services are critical in providing quality services. Given the rationale, continuous development and training of employees are exceptionally important for the Group to excel amongst competitors and to drive sustainable growth ultimately.

As outlined in the Training Management System (培訓管理制度), Human Resources Department investigates each department's needs for training, formulates the yearly training plans and controls the budgeting for training. OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Pan Asia Data Holdings Inc. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (together the "Group") set out on pages 69 to 161, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2022, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss, the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2022, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSA") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the "Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements" section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

MATERIAL UNCERTAINTY RELATED TO GOING CONCERN

We draw your attention to note 3.1 to the consolidated financial statements, which indicates that the Group incurred a net loss of HK$102,733,000 during the year ended 31 December 2022 and, as of that date, the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by HK$180,571,000. As stated in note 3.1 to the consolidated financial statements, the consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, the validity of which depends upon the Group's ability to generate sufficient cash flows from future operations and the successful roll-over or refinancing of existing borrowings to extend their repayment dates. These conditions, along with other matters as described in note 3.1 to the consolidated financial statements, indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Independent Auditor's Report

Key Audit Matter

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Impairment assessment of goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life

The Group has a significant balance of goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life arising from the acquisition of Lian Yang Guo Rong Holdings Limited ("LYGR") and its subsidiaries in 2021. As at 31 December 2022, the carrying amount of goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life amounted to HK$114,545,000 and HK$238,529,000, respectively.

Goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life are subject to impairment assessment annually and when there is an indication of impairment. For the purpose of impairment assessment, goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life are allocated to the cash generating unit of the LYGR ("LYGR CGU"). The recoverable amount of the LYGR CGU is determined by the higher of the fair value less cost of disposal ("FVL COD") and value in use ("VIU").

As at 31 December 2022, management has engaged an independent external valuer to assist in performing the impairment assessment. It is determined that the FVL COD approach is adopted as the recoverable amount of the LYGR CGU derived is higher than that from the VIU approach. For calculation of the FVL COD, market approach is used, where significant judgements are required to determine the assumptions, including valuation multiples (such as price to average sales multiple) of comparable companies, discount for lack of marketability ("DLOM"), control premium and estimated cost of disposal adopted in the valuation model.

We focus on this area due to the magnitude of the carrying amount of goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life and significant judgements were required by management on the key assumptions adopted in the valuation model.

The related disclosures are included in notes 4 and 18 to the consolidated financial statements.

Our procedures in related to impairment assessment of goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life included:

- Understanding the key controls on how management performed the impairment assessment;
- Assessing the appropriateness of management's identification of CGU and allocation of goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life based on Group's accounting policy and our understanding of the Group's business;
- Assessing the competency, capability and objectivity of the independent external valuer engaged by management;
- Obtaining the valuation report and discussed with the independent external valuer on the valuation methodology and key assumptions adopted;
- For calculation of the FVL COD of the LYGR CGU, evaluating the appropriateness of the selection of comparable companies by comparing the business profiles of LYGR with those of the respective comparable companies, and assessing the reasonableness of DLOM, control premium and estimated cost of disposal adopted; and
- Evaluating the sensitivity analysis performed by the management on the key assumptions to understand the impact on the estimated recoverable amount.

Based on the procedures performed, we found the key assumptions adopted are supported by the evidence obtained.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information in the annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

Independent Auditor's Report

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement director on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Chau Fong, Lily.

- The shareholders' contribution/distribution reserve included: (i) deemed distribution to a shareholder of approximately HK$12,515,000 involving a distribution of assets other than cash to an owner by making reference to the fair value of the assets being distributed; (ii) deemed contribution from a shareholder of approximately HK$842,000 about the disposal of a subsidiary which having net liabilities; and (iii) deemed shareholders' contribution upon the waiver of loan from the former ultimate holding company of approximately HK$11,399,000.
- Other reserve was resulted from the (i) partial disposal of a subsidiary in previous years; (ii) provision for general risk reserve of subsidiaries in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") and (iii) acquisition of additional interests in a subsidiary without changes in control.
- The non-distributable reserve of the Group mainly represents statutory reserve requirement that the foreign investment enterprises appropriated 10% of the profit after taxation of the subsidiaries of the Company registered in the PRC to the non-distributable reserve under the PRC laws and regulations until the transferred amount equals to 50% of the registered capital of these PRC subsidiaries. It can be used to make up for previous years' losses or converted into additional capital of these PRC subsidiaries.

3 BASIS OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

3.1 Basis of preparation of consolidated financial statements

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA. For the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements, information is considered material if such information is reasonably expected to influence decisions made by primary users. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange ("Listing Rules") and by the disclosure requirements of Hong Kong Companies Ordinance ("CO").

At 31 December 2022, the Group had net current liabilities of approximately HK$180,571,000 and certain capital commitments (see note 37). In assessing the appropriateness of the adoption of the going concern basis in the preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements, the Directors prepared a cash flow forecast, covering a period of twelve months from the date of approval of these consolidated financial statements (the "Cash Flow Forecast") with careful consideration to the future liquidity and financial performance of the Group and its available sources of financing. In preparing the Cash Flow Forecast, the Directors have taken into account (a) the capitalisation of other borrowings amounted to approximately HK$57,542,000 subsequent to the end of the reporting period, details of which are set out in note 45 below; and (b) the following measures which the Group makes every effort to implement:

- (i) to obtain additional funds by equity financing and long-term debt financing to finance the Group's working capital;
- (ii) to actively negotiate with the lenders of the other borrowings, for the extension of repayments as the Group considers it has sufficient collateral to support the extension; and
- (iii) to formulate and closely monitor business strategy for the Group to generate cash flows from its existing and new business operations.

Based on the Cash Flow Forecast, assuming the above measures can be successfully implemented as planned, the Directors are of the opinion that the Group would have sufficient working capital to finance its operations and to meet its financial obligations to enable the Group to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, the Directors consider that it is appropriate to prepare the consolidated financial statements on a going concern basis.

Notwithstanding the above, material uncertainty exists as to whether the Group is able to achieve its plans and measures as described above, which incorporate assumptions about future events and conditions that are subject to inherent uncertainties. Should the Group be unable to achieve the above plans and measures such that it would not operate as a going concern, adjustments would have to be made to reduce the carrying values of the Group's assets to their recoverable amounts and to provide for financial liabilities which might arise. The effect of these adjustments has not been reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies set out below.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these consolidated financial statements is determined on such a basis, except for share-based payment transactions that are within the scope of HKFRS 2 Share-based Payment, leasing transactions that are accounted for in accordance with HKFRS 16 Leases ("HKFRS 16"), and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in HKAS 2 Inventories ("HKAS 2") or value in use in HKAS 36 Impairment of Assets ("HKAS 36").

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

For financial instruments which are transacted at fair value and a valuation technique that unobservable inputs are to be used to measure fair value in subsequent periods, the valuation technique is calibrated so that at initial recognition the results of the valuation technique equals the transaction price.

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The principal accounting policies adopted are set out below.

3.2 Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars)

3.2 Basis of consolidation (Continued)

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss from the date the Group gains control until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each item of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

Where necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intra-group assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

Non-controlling interests in subsidiaries are presented separately from the Group's equity therein, which represent present ownership interests entitling their holders to a proportionate share of net assets of the relevant subsidiaries upon liquidation.

3.3 Changes in the Group's interests in existing subsidiaries

Changes in the Group's interests in subsidiaries that do not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the Group's relevant components of equity and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiaries, including re-attribution of relevant reserves between the Group and the non-controlling interests according to the Group's and the non-controlling interests' proportionate interests.

Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted, and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Company.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, the assets and liabilities of that subsidiary and non-controlling interests (if any) are derecognised. A gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss and is calculated as the difference between (i) the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest and (ii) the carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill), and liabilities of the subsidiary attributable to the owners of the Company. All amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that subsidiary are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities of the subsidiary (i.e. reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable HKFRSs). The fair value of any investment retained in the former subsidiary at the date when control is lost is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition for subsequent accounting under HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments ("HKFRS 9") or, when applicable, the cost on initial recognition of an investment in an associate or a joint venture.

3.4 Business combinations

A business is an integrated set of activities and assets which includes an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create outputs. The acquired processes are considered substantive if they are critical to the ability to continue producing outputs, including an organised workforce with the necessary skills, knowledge, or experience to perform the related processes or they significantly contribute to the ability to continue producing outputs and are considered unique or scarce or cannot be replaced without significant cost, effort, or delay in the ability to continue producing outputs.

Acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured at fair value, which is calculated as the sum of the acquisition-date fair values of the assets transferred by the Group, liabilities incurred by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. Acquisition-related costs are generally recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

For business combinations in which the acquisition date is on or after 1 January 2022, the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed must meet the definitions of an asset and a liability in the Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting 2018 issued in June 2018 (the "Conceptual Framework") except for transactions and events within the scope of HKAS 37 or HK(IFRIC)-Int 21, in which the Group applies HKAS 37 or HK(IFRIC)-Int 21 instead of the Conceptual Framework to identify the liabilities it has assumed in a business combination. Contingent assets are not recognised.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognised at their fair value, except that:

- deferred tax assets or liabilities, and assets or liabilities related to employee benefit arrangements are recognised and measured in accordance with HKAS 12 Income Taxes and HKAS 19 Employee Benefits respectively;
- liabilities or equity instruments related to share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree or share-based payment arrangements of the Group entered into to replace share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree are measured in accordance with HKFRS 2 Share-based Payment at the acquisition date;
- assets (or disposal groups) that are classified as held for sale in accordance with HKFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations are measured in accordance with that standard; and
- lease liabilities are recognised and measured at the present value of the remaining lease payments (as defined in HKFRS 16) as if the acquired leases were new leases at the acquisition date, except for leases for which (a) the lease term ends within 12 months of the acquisition date; or (b) the underlying asset is of low value. Right-of-use assets are recognised and measured at the same amount as the relevant lease liabilities, adjusted to reflect favourable or unfavourable terms of the lease when compared with market terms.

Goodwill is measured as the excess of the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree, and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any) over the net amount of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed as at acquisition date. If, after reassessment, the net amount of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed exceeds the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest in the acquiree (if any), the excess is recognised immediately in profit or loss as a bargain purchase gain.

Non-controlling interests that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the relevant subsidiary's net assets in the event of liquidation are initially measured at the non-controlling interests' proportionate share of the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets or at fair value. The choice of measurement basis is made on a transaction-by-transaction basis.

When the consideration transferred by the Group in a business combination includes a contingent consideration arrangement, the contingent consideration is measured at its acquisition-date fair value and included as part of the consideration transferred in a business combination. Changes in the fair value of the contingent consideration that qualify as measurement period adjustments are adjusted retrospectively. Measurement period adjustments are adjustments that arise from additional information obtained during the "measurement period" (which cannot exceed one year from the acquisition date) about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date.

The subsequent accounting for the contingent consideration that do not qualify as measurement period adjustments depends on how the contingent consideration is classified. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity. Contingent consideration that is classified as an asset or a liability is remeasured to fair value at subsequent reporting dates, with the corresponding gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss.

When a business combination is achieved in stages, the Group's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date (i.e. the date when the Group obtains control), and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is recognised in profit or loss or other comprehensive income, as appropriate. Amounts arising from interests in the acquiree prior to the acquisition date that have previously been recognised in other comprehensive income and measured under HKFRS 9 would be accounted for on the same basis as would be required if the Group had disposed directly of the previously held equity interest.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the Group reports provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. Those provisional amounts are adjusted retrospectively during the measurement period (see above), and additional assets or liabilities are recognised, to reflect new information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date that, if known, would have affected the amounts recognised at that date.

3.5 Goodwill

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business (see note 3.4 above) less accumulated impairment losses, if any.

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units (or group of cash-generating units) that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, which represent the lowest level at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes and not larger than an operating segment.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars)

A cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually or more frequently when there is indication that the unit may be impaired. For goodwill arising on an acquisition in a reporting period, the cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment before the end of that reporting period. If the recoverable amount is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit (or group of cash-generating units). Any impairment loss for goodwill is recognised directly in profit or loss. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in subsequent periods.

On disposal of the relevant cash-generating unit or any of the cash-generating unit within the group of cash-generating units, the attributable amount of goodwill is included in the determination of the amount of profit or loss on disposal. When the Group disposes of an operation within the cash-generating unit (or a cash-generating unit within a group of cash-generating units), the amount of goodwill disposed of is measured on the basis of the relative values of the operation (or the cash-generating unit) disposed of and the portion of the cash-generating unit (or the group of cash-generating units) retained.

The Group's policy for goodwill arising on the acquisition of an associate is described in note 3.6 below.

3.6 Investments in associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The results and assets and liabilities of associate are incorporated in the consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. The financial statements of associate used for equity accounting purposes are prepared using uniform accounting policies as those of the Group for like transactions and events in similar circumstances. Under the equity method, an investment in an associate is initially recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the associate. Changes in net assets of the associate other than profit or loss and other comprehensive income are not accounted for unless such changes resulted in changes in ownership interest held by the Group. When the Group's share of losses of an associate exceeds the Group's interest in that associate (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the associate), the Group discontinues recognising its share of further losses. Additional losses are recognised only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

An investment in an associate is accounted for using the equity method from the date on which the investee becomes an associate. On acquisition of the investment in an associate, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee is recognised as goodwill, which is included within the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment, after reassessment, is recognised immediately in profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars)

3.6 Investments in associates (Continued)

The Group assesses whether there is an objective evidence that the interest in an associate may be impaired. When any objective evidence exists, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with HKAS 36 as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised is not allocated to any asset, including goodwill, that forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognised in accordance with HKAS 36 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

When the Group ceases to have significant influence over an associate, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in the investee with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss. When the Group retains an interest in the former associate and the retained interest is a financial asset within the scope of HKFRS 9, the Group measures the retained interest at fair value at that date and the fair value is regarded as its fair value on initial recognition. The difference between the carrying amount of the associate and the fair value of any retained interest and any proceeds from disposing of the relevant interest in the associate is included in the determination of the gain or loss on disposal of the associate. In addition, the Group accounts for all amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that associate on the same basis as would be required if that associate had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. Therefore, if a gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income by that associate would be reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities, the Group reclassifies the gain or loss from equity to profit or loss (as a reclassification adjustment) upon disposal/partial disposal of the relevant associates.

Where a group entity transacts with an associate of the Group, profits and losses resulting from the transactions with the associate are recognised in the consolidated financial statements only to the extent of interests in the associate that are not related to the Group.

3.7 Revenue from contracts with customers

The Group recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when “control” of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer.

A performance obligation represents a good or service (or a bundle of goods or services) that is distinct or a series of distinct goods or services that are substantially the same.

Control is transferred over time and revenue is recognised over time by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of the relevant performance obligation if one of the following criteria is met:

- the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group’s performance as the Group performs;
- the Group’s performance creates and enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs; or
- the Group’s performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the distinct good or service.

3.7 Revenue from contracts with customers (Continued)

A contract asset represents the Group's right to consideration in exchange for goods or services that the Group has transferred to a customer that is not yet unconditional. It is assessed for impairment in accordance with HKFRS 9. In contrast, a receivable represents the Group's unconditional right to consideration, i.e. only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due.

A contract liability represents the Group's obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer.

A contract asset and a contract liability relating to the same contract are accounted for and presented on a net basis.

Principal versus agent

When another party is involved in providing goods or services to a customer, the Group determines whether the nature of its promise is a performance obligation to provide the specified goods or services itself (i.e. the Group is a principal) or to arrange for those goods or services to be provided by the other party (i.e. the Group is an agent).

The Group is a principal if it controls the specified good or service before that good or service is transferred to a customer.

The Group is an agent if its performance obligation is to arrange for the provision of the specified good or service by another party. In this case, the Group does not control the specified good or service provided by another party before that good or service is transferred to the customer. When the Group acts as an agent, it recognises revenue in the amount of any fee or commission to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for arranging for the specified goods or services to be provided by the other party.

Further details of the Group's revenue recognition policies are disclosed in note 5.

3.8 Leases

Definition of a lease

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

For contracts entered into or modified on or after the date of initial application or arising from business combinations, the Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under HKFRS 16 at inception, modification date or acquisition date, as appropriate. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed.

The Group as a lessee

Allocation of consideration to components of a contract

For a contract that contains a lease component and one or more additional lease or non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

The Group applies practical expedient not to separate non lease components from lease component, and instead account for the lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to leases of staff quarters that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. It also applies the recognition exemption for lease of low-value assets. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis or another systematic basis over the lease term.

Right-of-use assets

The cost of right-of-use asset includes:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs incurred by the Group; and
- an estimate of costs to be incurred by the Group in dismantling and removing the underlying assets, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term are depreciated from commencement date to the end of the useful life. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

The Group presents right-of-use assets as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted under HKFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group recognises and measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

(Expressed in Hong Kong dollars)

The lease payments include:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise the option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

After the commencement date, lease liabilities are adjusted by interest accretion and lease payments.

The Group remeasures lease liabilities (and makes a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use assets) whenever:

- the lease term has changed or there is a change in the assessment of exercise of a purchase option, in which case the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the date of reassessment.
- the lease payments change due to changes in expected payment under a guaranteed residual value, in which cases the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using the initial discount rate.

The Group presents lease liabilities as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Lease modifications

The Group accounts for a lease modification as a separate lease if:

- the modification increases the scope of the lease by adding the right to use one or more underlying assets; and
- the consideration for the leases increases by an amount commensurate with the stand-alone price for the increase in scope and any appropriate adjustments to that stand-alone price to reflect the circumstances of the particular contract.

For a lease modification that is not accounted for as a separate lease, the Group remeasures the lease liability, less any lease incentives receivable, based on the lease term of the modified lease by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

The Group accounts for the remeasurement of lease liabilities by making corresponding adjustments to the relevant right-of-use asset. When the modified contract contains one or more additional lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the modified contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component. The associated non-lease components are included in the respective lease components.

The Group as a lessor

Classification and measurement of leases

Leases for which the Group is a lessor are classified as finance or operating leases. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Rental income from operating leases is recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset, and such costs are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term except for investment properties measured under fair value model.

Allocation of consideration to components of a contract

When a contract includes both leases and non-lease components, the Group applies HKFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("HKFRS 15") to allocate consideration in a contract to lease and non-lease components. Non-lease components are separated from lease component on the basis of their relative stand-alone selling prices.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits received are accounted for under HKFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments from lessees.

Lease modification

Changes in considerations of lease contracts that were not part of the original terms and conditions are accounted for as lease modifications, including lease incentives provided through forgiveness or reduction of rentals.

The Group accounts for a modification to an operating lease as a new lease from the effective date of the modification, considering any prepaid or accrued lease payments relating to the original lease as part of the lease payments for the new lease.

3.9 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are tangible assets that are held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes (other than construction in progress). Property, plant and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Construction in progress represents property, plant and equipment in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. Costs include any costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management, including costs of testing whether the related assets is functioning properly and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Sale proceeds of items that are produced while bringing an item of property, plant and equipment to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management (such as samples produced when testing whether the asset is functioning properly), and the related costs of producing those items are recognised in the profit or loss. The cost of those items are measured in accordance with the measurement requirements of HKAS 2. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

When the Group makes payments for ownership interests of properties which includes both leasehold land and building elements, the entire consideration is allocated between the leasehold land and the building elements in proportion to the relative fair values at initial recognition. To the extent the allocation of the relevant payments can be made reliably, interest in leasehold land is presented as "right-of-use assets" in the consolidated statement of financial position. When the consideration cannot be allocated reliably between non-lease building element and undivided interest in the underlying leasehold land, the entire properties are classified as property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets (other than construction in progress) less their residual values over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for a prospective basis.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

3.10 Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at costs less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses.

Amortisation for intangible assets with finite useful lives is recognised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less any subsequent accumulated impairment losses.

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recognised separately from goodwill and are initially recognised at their fair value at the acquisition date (which is regarded as their cost).

Subsequent to initial recognition, intangible assets acquired in a business combination with finite useful lives are reported at costs less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses, on the same basis as intangible assets that are acquired separately. Intangible assets acquired in a business combination with indefinite useful lives are carried at cost less any subsequent accumulated impairment losses.

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains and losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

3.11 Impairment on property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets other than goodwill

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets with finite useful lives to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, (if any). Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that they may be impaired.

The recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets are estimated individually. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount individually, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, corporate assets are allocated to the relevant cash-generating unit when a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be established, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be established. The recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units to which the corporate asset belongs, and is compared with the carrying amount of the relevant cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset (or a cash-generating unit) for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or a cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. For corporate assets or portion of corporate assets which cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a cash-generating unit, the Group compares the carrying amount of a group of cash-generating units, including the carrying amounts of the corporate assets or portion of corporate assets allocated to that group of cash-generating units, with the recoverable amount of the group of cash-generating units. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or the group of cash-generating units. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit or the group of cash-generating units. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or a cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

3.12 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents presented on the consolidated statement of financial position include:

- (a) cash, which comprises of cash on hand and demand deposits, excluding bank balances that are subject to regulatory restrictions that result in such balances no longer meeting the definition of cash; and
- (b) cash equivalents, which comprises of short-term (generally with original maturity of three months or less), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Cash equivalents are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments rather than for investment or other purposes.

For the purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and cash equivalents as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management. Such overdrafts are presented as short-term borrowings in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Bank balances for which use by the Group is subject to third party contractual restrictions are included as part of cash unless the restrictions result in a bank balance no longer meeting the definition of cash. Contractual restrictions affecting use of bank balances are disclosed in note 24.

3.13 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of inventories are determined on a first-in, first-out method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale. Costs necessary to make the sale include incremental costs directly attributable to the sale and non-incremental costs which the Group must incur to make the sale.

3.14 Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value except for trade receivables arising from contracts with customers which are initially measured in accordance with HKFRS 15. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating interest income and interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts and payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Financial assets

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVTOCI"):

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both selling and collecting contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

All other financial assets are subsequently measured at FVTPL, except that at initial recognition of a financial asset the Group may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in fair value of an equity investment in other comprehensive income if that equity investment is neither held for trading nor contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which HKFRS 3 Business Combinations applies.

A financial asset is classified as held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is a part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

In addition, the Group may irrevocably designate a financial asset that are required to be measured at the amortised cost or FVTOCI as measured at FVTPL if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch.

(i) Amortised cost and interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method for financial assets measured subsequently at amortised cost. Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset, except for financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired (see below). For financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset from the next reporting period. If the credit risk on the credit-impaired financial instrument improves so that the financial asset is no longer credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset from the beginning of the reporting period following the determination that the asset is no longer credit impaired.

(ii) Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets that do not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost or FVTOCI or designated as FVTOCI are measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period, with any fair value gains or losses recognised in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss includes any dividend or interest earned on the financial asset and is included in the “other gains and losses, net” line item.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group performs impairment assessment under expected credit loss (“ECL”) model on financial assets including deposits paid, trade receivables, other receivables, bills receivables, restricted bank deposits and bank balances which are subject to impairment under HKFRS 9. The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of the relevant instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL (“12m ECL”) represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. Assessment are done based on the Group’s historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future conditions.

The Group always recognises lifetime ECL for trade receivables.

For all other instruments, the Group measures the loss allowance equal to 12m ECL, unless when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, in which case the Group recognises lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

(i) Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- significant deterioration in external market indicators of credit risk, e.g. a significant increase in the credit spread, the credit default swap prices for the debtor;
- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor; or
- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the debtor that results in a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

Despite the foregoing, the Group assumes that the credit risk on a debt instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition if the debt instrument is determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date. A debt instrument is determined to have low credit risk if (i) it has a low risk of default, (ii) the borrower has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term and (iii) adverse changes in economic and business conditions in the longer term may, but will not necessarily, reduce the ability of the borrower to fulfil its contractual cash flow obligations. The Group considers a debt instrument to have low credit risk when it has an internal or external credit rating of "investment grade" as per globally understood definitions.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

(ii) Definition of default

For internal credit risk management, the Group considers an event of default occurs when information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group).

Irrespective of the above, the Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

(iii) Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events of default that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider;
- it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation; or
- the disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties.

(iv) Write-off policy

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the counterparty is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, for example, when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. A write-off constitutes a derecognition event. Any subsequent recoveries are recognised in profit or loss.

(v) Measurement and recognition of ECL

The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data and forward-looking information. Estimation of ECL reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights. The Group uses a practical expedient in estimating ECL on trade receivables using a provision matrix taking into consideration historical credit loss experience and forward looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

Generally, the ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the effective interest rate determined at initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL for certain trade receivables are considered on a collective basis taking into consideration past due information and relevant credit information such as forward looking macroeconomic information.

For collective assessment, the Group takes into consideration the following characteristics when formulating the grouping:

- Past-due status;
- Nature, size and industry of debtors; and
- External credit ratings where available.

The grouping is regularly reviewed by management to ensure the constituents of each group continue to share similar credit risk characteristics.

Interest income is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on amortised cost of the financial asset.

The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments by adjusting their carrying amount, where the corresponding adjustment is recognised through a loss allowance account.

Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity.

On derecognition of a financial asset measured at amortised cost, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method or at FVTPL.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are classified as at FVTPL when the financial liability is (i) contingent consideration of an acquirer in a business combination to which HKFRS 3 applies, (ii) held for trading or (iii) it is designated as at FVTPL.

A financial liability is held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of repurchasing it in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative, except for a derivative that is a financial guarantee contract or a designated and effective hedging instrument.

A financial liability other than a financial liability held for trading or contingent consideration of an acquirer in a business combination may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if:

- such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would otherwise arise; or
- the financial liability forms part of a group of financial assets or financial liabilities or both, which is managed and its performance is evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with the Group's documented risk management or investment strategy, and information about the grouping is provided internally on that basis; or
- it forms part of a contract containing one or more embedded derivatives, and HKFRS 9 permits the entire combined contract to be designated as at FVTPL.

For financial liabilities that are designated as at FVTPL, the amount of change in the fair value of the financial liability that is attributable to changes in the credit risk of that liability is recognised in other comprehensive income, unless the recognition of the effects of changes in the liability's credit risk in other comprehensive income would create or enlarge an accounting mismatch in profit or loss. Changes in fair value attributable to a financial liability's credit risk that are recognised in other comprehensive income are not subsequently reclassified to profit or loss; instead, they are transferred to retained profits/accumulated losses upon derecognition of the financial liability.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities including borrowings, lease liabilities and trade and other payables are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Convertible bonds

A conversion option that will be settled other than by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash or another financial asset for a fixed number of the Group's own equity instruments is a conversion option derivative.

At the date of issue, both the debt component and derivative components are recognised at fair value. In subsequent periods, the debt component of the convertible bonds is carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The derivative component is measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

Transaction costs that relate to the issue of the convertible bonds are allocated to the debt and derivative components in proportion to their relative fair values. Transaction costs relating to the derivative component are charged to profit or loss immediately. Transaction costs relating to the debt component are included in the carrying amount of the debt portion and amortised over the period of the convertible bonds using the effective interest method.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

Derivative financial instruments

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date when derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of the reporting period. The resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss immediately.

Embedded derivatives

Derivatives embedded in hybrid contracts that contain financial asset hosts within the scope of HKFRS 9 are not separated. The entire hybrid contract is classified and subsequently measured in its entirety as either amortised cost or fair value as appropriate.

Derivatives embedded in non-derivative host contracts that are not financial assets within the scope of HKFRS 9 are treated as separate derivatives when they meet the definition of a derivative, their risks and characteristics are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not measured at FVTPL.

Generally, multiple embedded derivatives in a single instrument that are separated from the host contracts are treated as a single compound embedded derivative unless those derivatives relate to different risk exposures and are readily separable and independent of each other.

Offsetting a financial asset and a financial liability

A financial asset and a financial liability are offset and the net amount presented in the consolidated statement of financial position when, and only when, the Group currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts; and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

3.15 Employee benefits

Retirement benefit costs

Payments to the defined contribution retirement benefit plans are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

Termination benefits

A liability for a termination benefit is recognised at the earlier of when the Group entity can no longer withdraw the offer of the termination benefit and when it recognises any related restructuring costs.

Short-term and other long-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are recognised at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid as and when employees rendered the services. All short-term employee benefits are recognised as an expense unless another HKFRS requires or permits the inclusion of the benefit in the cost of an asset.

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees (such as wages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave) after deducting any amount already paid.

Liabilities recognised in respect of other long-term employee benefits are measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows expected to be made by the Group in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date.

3.16 Share-based payments

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions

Share options granted to directors and employees

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date.

The fair value of the equity-settled share-based payments determined at the grant date without taking into consideration all non-market vesting conditions is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity (share-based payment reserve). At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest based on assessment of all relevant non-market vesting conditions. The impact of the revision of the original estimates, if any, is recognised in profit or loss such that the cumulative expense reflects the revised estimate, with a corresponding adjustment to the share-based payment reserve. For share options that vest immediately at the date of grant, the fair value of the share options granted is expensed immediately to profit or loss.

When share options are exercised, the amount previously recognised in share-based payment reserve will be transferred to share capital and share premium. When the share options are forfeited after the vesting date or are still not exercised at the expiry date, the amount previously recognised in share-based payment reserve will be transferred to retained profits/accumulated losses.

Shares/Share options granted to non-employees

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions with parties other than employees are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received, except where that fair value cannot be estimated reliably, in which case they are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted, measured at the date the entity obtains the goods or the counterparty renders the service. The fair values of the goods or services received are recognised as expenses (unless the goods or services qualify for recognition as assets).

3.17 Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the income tax expense currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from "profit/(loss) before taxation" as reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss because of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments and interests are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

For leasing transactions in which the tax deductions are attributable to the lease liabilities, the Group applies HKAS 12 Income Taxes requirements to right-of-use assets and lease liabilities separately. Temporary differences on initial recognition of the relevant right-of-use assets and lease liabilities are not recognised due to application of the initial recognition exemption. Temporary differences arising from subsequent revision to the carrying amounts of right-of-use assets and lease liabilities, resulting from remeasurement of lease liabilities and lease modifications, that are not subject to initial recognition exemption are recognised on the date of remeasurement or modification.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied to the same taxable entity by the same taxation authority.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly to equity, in which case, the current tax and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively. Where current tax or deferred tax arises from the initial accounting for a business combination, the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination.

3.18 Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recognised at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. HK$) using exchange rates prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the period. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of translation reserve (attributed to non-controlling interests as appropriate).

On the disposal of a foreign operation (that is, a disposal of the Group's entire interest in a foreign operation, or a disposal involving loss of control over a subsidiary that includes a foreign operation, or a partial disposal of an interest in an associate that includes a foreign operation of which the retained interest becomes a financial asset), all of the exchange differences accumulated in equity in respect of that operation attributable to the owners of the Company are reclassified to profit or loss.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments on identifiable assets acquired arising on an acquisition of a foreign operation are treated as assets and liabilities of that foreign operation and translated at the rate of exchange prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Exchange differences arising are recognised in other comprehensive income.

3.19 Borrowing costs

All borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

3.20 Government grants

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received.

Government grants are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Group recognises as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Specifically, government grants whose primary condition is that the Group should purchase, construct or otherwise acquire non-current assets are recognised as deferred income in the consolidated statement of financial position and transferred to profit or loss on a systematic and rational basis over the useful lives of the related assets.

Government grants related to income that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable. Such grants are presented under "other gains and losses, net".

3.21 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, and it is probable that the Group will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made on the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (where the effect of the time value of money is material).

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

3.22 Contingent liabilities

A contingent liability is a present obligation arising from past events but is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation or the amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

Where the Group is jointly and severally liable for an obligation, the part of the obligation that is expected to be met by other parties is treated as a contingent liability and it is not recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

The Group assesses continually to determine whether an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits has become probable. If it becomes probable that an outflow of future economic benefits will be required for an item previously dealt with as a contingent liability, a provision is recognised in the consolidated financial statements in the reporting period in which the change in probability occurs, except in the extremely rare circumstances where no reliable estimate can be made.

3.23 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the steering committee that makes strategic decisions.

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in note 3, management of the Group is required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and underlying assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Going concern basis

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, the validity of which depends upon the availability of funding from various sources to enable the Group to operate as a going concern and meet its liabilities as they fall due. Details are explained in note 3.1 to the consolidated financial statements.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Estimated impairment of goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life

Determining whether goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life are impaired requires an estimation of the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit ("CGU") (or group of CGUs) to which goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life have been allocated, which is the higher of the value in use or fair value less costs of disposal. The calculation requires the use of judgement and estimates. Further details are set out in note 18.

Provision of ECL for trade receivables

The Group uses provision matrix to calculate ECL for the trade receivables. The loss rates are based on internal credit ratings as groupings of various debtors that have similar loss patterns. The provision matrix is based on the Group's historical default rates taking into consideration forward-looking information that is reasonable and supportable available without undue costs or effort. At the end of the reporting period, the historical observed default rates are reassessed and changes in the forward-looking information are considered.

The provision of ECL is sensitive to changes in estimates. The information about the ECL and the Group's trade receivables are disclosed in note 43(b).

Deferred tax assets

As at 31 December 2022, as detailed in note 21, deferred tax assets of approximately HK$12,138,000 (2021: HK$7,857,000) in relation to unused tax losses for certain operating subsidiaries has been recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position. The realisability of the deferred tax assets mainly depends on whether sufficient future profits or taxable temporary differences will be available in the future. In cases where the actual future taxable profits generated are less or more than expected, or change in facts and circumstances which result in revision of future taxable profits estimation, a material reversal or further recognition of deferred tax assets may arise, which would be recognised in profit or loss for the period in which such a reversal or further recognition takes place.

Valuation of the embedded derivatives component of convertible bonds

The fair value for the embedded derivatives component of convertible bonds is established by using valuation techniques. The valuation model is sensitive to changes in certain key inputs including volatility of share prices, risk-free rate and dividend yield that require significant management estimates. Any changes in the estimates and assumptions will affect the fair values of the embedded derivatives in convertible bonds. The carrying amount of embedded derivatives is approximately HK$76,000 (2021: HK$3,539,000), details are disclosed in note 30.

The Group's revenue recognition policies are disclosed as follows:

Provision of big data services

The revenue of the Group from provision of big data services is recognised at a point in time. The Group provides data analytics services to customers on a transactional basis. The services provided by the Group are price defined, and the revenue on usage-based subscription contracts with a defined price but an undefined quantity is recognised when the service is provided and billed.

Provision of third-party payment services

The revenue of the Group from provision of third-party payment services is recognised at a point in time. The Group has concluded it is the principal and recognises the commission income on a gross basis because it controls the services before delivery to the payees, it has primarily responsibility for the delivery of the services and has discretion in setting prices charged to payees. The Group also has the unilateral ability to accept or reject a transaction based on criteria established by the Group. The Group is also liable for the costs of processing the transactions for the payees, and records such costs within cost of revenue.

Revenue from fintech enabling service income is generally recognised when customer acceptance has been obtained.

Sales of goods

The revenue of the Group from sales of goods is recognised at a point in time. Revenue is recognised when the customer takes possession of and accepts the products. If the products are a partial fulfilment of a contract covering other goods and/or services, then the amount of revenue recognised is an appropriate proportion of the total transaction price under the contract, allocated between all the goods and services promised under the contract on a relative stand-alone selling price basis.

The Group has applied the practical expedient in paragraph 121 of HKFRS 15 to its sales contracts for coating products such that the above information does not include information about revenue that the Group will be entitled to when it satisfies the remaining performance obligations under the contracts for sales of coating products that had an original expected duration of one year or less.

6 OPERATING SEGMENTS

The Group has determined the operating segments based on the internal reports reviewed and used by the executive directors of the Company, who are the chief operating decision makers (“CODM”), for strategic decision making.

The CODM consider the business from a product and service perspective. The Group is organised into certain business units according to the nature of the products sold or services provided. The CODM review operating results and financial information of each business unit separately. Accordingly, each business unit is identified as an operating segment. These operating segments with similar economic characteristics and similar nature of products sold or services provided have been aggregated into the following reporting segments.

Big data services	— Provision of big data services
Third-party payment services	— Provision of third-party payment services
Coatings	— Manufacturing and trading of coatings

The Group leases various offices, warehouses and staff quarters for its operations for both years. Lease contracts are entered into for fixed term of 1 year to 5 years, but may have extension as described below. Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. In determining the lease term and assessing the length of the non-cancellable period, the Group applies the definition of a contract and determines the period for which the contract is enforceable.

In addition, the Group owns several leasehold lands in the PRC and Vietnam under medium-term lease. Lump sum payments were made upfront to acquire these leasehold lands.

During the year ended 31 December 2022, the expense relating to short-term leases and total cash outflow for leases amounted to approximately HK$1,552,000 (2021: HK$199,000) and HK$22,118,000 (2021: HK$15,082,000).

The Group has extension options in a number of leases for offices. These are used to maximise operational flexibility in terms of managing the assets used in the Group's operations. The majority of extension options held are exercisable only by the Group and not by the respective lessors.

During the year ended 31 December 2022, there is no such triggering event (2021: Nil).

The above intangible assets, other than goodwill, supplier relationship, licenses and trademarks, have finite useful lives. Such intangible assets are amortised on a straight-line basis after taking into account their estimated residual values at the following rates per annum:

Technology	20%
Distribution network	10%
Computer software	9%–19%

The supplier relationship, licenses and trademarks have a legal life of 5 years for the first contract, 5 years and 10 years but are renewable every year after the first contract, 5 years and 10 years, respectively, at minimal cost. The Directors are of the opinion that the Group would renew the supplier relationship, licenses and trademarks continuously and has the ability to do so. Various studies including product life cycle studies, market, competitive and environmental trends, and brand extension opportunities have been performed by management of the Group, which support that the supplier relationship, licenses and trademarks have no foreseeable limit to the period over which the supplier relationship, licenses and trademarked products are expected to generate net cash flows for the Group.

As a result, supplier relationship, licenses and trademarks are considered by the management of the Group as having an indefinite useful life because they are expected to contribute to net cash inflows indefinitely. The supplier relationship, licenses and trademarks will not be amortised until their useful life is determined to be finite. Instead they will be tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an indication that they may be impaired.

Impairment testing of goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life acquired through business combinations in the amounts of HK$114,545,000 and HK$238,529,000 (2021: HK$114,545,000 and HK$242,962,000), respectively, is allocated to the LYGR CGU.

Mao Hong CGU

得仕股份有限公司 (Day's Enterprise Company Limited*) ("Days Services"), the Group's indirect non-wholly owned subsidiary under the CGU of Mao Hong Information Technology Holding Limited ("Mao Hong") and its subsidiaries ("Mao Hong CGU"), holds a licence issued by the People's Bank of China (the "PBOC") authorising the provision of third-party payment services in the PRC (the "Payment License") which was expired on 28 August 2021. An application had been made for a renewal of the Payment License. On 29 August 2021, Days Services was informed that the PBOC had decided to suspend the review process pending further clarification and/or verification of certain information in relation to Days Services' suitability to continue to be a licensee, and will resume the review process of the renewal afterwards. In the meantime, Days Services has obtained confirmation from the PBOC that Days Services was permitted to conduct its business as usual in order to avoid any undue disruptions to its customers and the financial market.

Due to the difficulties in license renewal for the third-party payment services business as mentioned above, the Group recognised a further impairment losses of other intangible assets in relation to Mao Hong CGU amounting to approximately HK$631,594,000 during the year ended 31 December 2021. As a result, as at 31 December 2022 and 2021, all intangible assets (including goodwill) in relation to Mao Hong CGU had been fully impaired.

LYGR CGU

As at 31 December 2022, the recoverable amount of the LYGR CGU was determined based on fair value less cost of disposal ("FVL COD"), which is higher than value-in-use ("VIU"), with reference to the valuation report prepared by an independent external professional qualified valuer. The valuation technique for FVL COD is market approach and the key parameters adopted as at 31 December 2022 are as follows:

Valuation multiples (such as price to average sale multiple) of the comparable companies	4.15
Discount for lack of marketability ("DLOM")	20.60%
Control premium	37.00%
Estimated cost of disposal to consideration	1%

As at 31 December 2021, the recoverable amount of the LYGR CGU was determined based on a value-in-use calculation. The value-in-use calculation was determined with reference to the valuation report prepared by an independent external professional qualified valuer. That calculation uses cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by management covering a 5-year period, and discount rate of 20.0%. Cash flows beyond the 5-year period are extrapolated using 2.0% average growth rate. This growth rate is based on the relevant industry growth forecasts and does not exceed the average long-term growth rate for the relevant industry. Other key assumptions for the value-in-use calculations relate to the estimation of cash inflows/outflows which include budgeted revenue and gross margin, such estimation is based on the unit's past performance and management's expectations for the market development.

The key parameters used for value-in-use calculations are as follows:

Average revenue growth rate of LYGR CGU between the Financial Year ("FY") of 2022 and FY2026	65.9%
Gross profit margin of LYGR CGU between FY2022 and FY2026	67.8%–72.1%
Net profit margin of LYGR CGU between FY2022 and FY2026	6.5%–16.8%
Terminal growth rate	2.0%
Pre-tax discount rate	20.0%

Based on the above assessments, no impairment of the carrying amounts of goodwill and supplier relationship with an indefinite useful life as at 31 December 2022 and 2021 is recognised. As there is sufficient headroom available as at 31 December 2022 and 2021, a reasonably possible change in the key assumptions would not cause the recoverable amount to fall below the carrying amount of the respective cash-generating unit.

On 3 December 2013, the Group entered into a share transfer agreement and a shareholder's agreement (the "Shareholder's Agreement") with Teknos Group Oy, an independent third party (the "Purchaser"). Pursuant to these agreements, the Group agreed to dispose of its 20% equity interest in 萬輝泰克諾斯(常州)化工有限公司 (Manfield Teknos (Changzhou) Chemical Company Limited*) ("Manfield Changzhou") to the Purchaser at a cash consideration of approximately RMB10 million (or equivalent to approximately HK$13 million) reducing the Group's equity interest in Manfield Changzhou to 60% upon completion. In addition, the Group has a right ("Put Option") to dispose of its further 40% equity interests in Manfield Changzhou at a consideration pre-described in the Shareholder's Agreement (the "Price") for a period of five years from the date of the Shareholder's Agreement. According to the Shareholder's Agreement, the Purchaser has a right ("Call Option") to acquire further 40% equity interests in Manfield Changzhou from the Group at the price starting from the sixth years from the date of the Shareholder's Agreement (no definite period set out in the Shareholder's Agreement) if the Group does not exercise its right to dispose of its 40% equity interests in Manfield Changzhou during the first five years period.

At the date of further disposal of 40% equity interests in Manfield Changzhou, the Price is determined at the higher of (i) 40% of the net assets value of Manfield Changzhou plus a premium at the date of such further disposal or (ii) 6 times of earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation ("EBITDA") for the period of twelve months immediately before the date of such further disposal; or (iii) RMB20,500,000.

During the year ended 31 December 2018, the Group issued a demand to the Purchaser for the exercise of the Put Option, but no positive response has been received from the Purchaser. In this circumstances, the Group submitted an arbitration application (the "Arbitration") to Shanghai International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (the "SHIAC"). The Group considered that the fair value of the Put Option as at the date of exercise was insignificant.

During the year ended 31 December 2021, the Group received an arbitral award issued by the SHIAC dated 18 June 2021 in relation to the arbitration proceedings. Under the arbitral award, it was decided by SHIAC that, amongst other things, (i) Purchaser pays HK$32,830,324 to the Group to purchase 40% equity interest in Manfield Changzhou owned by the Group, (ii) within 60 days of the arbitral award, the Group pays HK$32,830,324 to purchase the 40% equity interests in Manfield Changzhou owned by the Purchaser, and (iii) the Group and the Purchaser bear 40% and 60% of the arbitration fees respectively. The overall effect of the arbitral award after set off is that the Purchaser is required to pay the Group a sum of RMB133,892.09 within 15 days of the effective date of the arbitral award, but the shareholdings of both parties in Manfield Changzhou remain unchanged.

Subsequent to the issue of the arbitral award, the Purchaser sought to assert a claim (the "Claim") that the Group is bound to repurchase the 40% equity interest owned by the Purchaser for the sum of HK$32,830,324 and sought to assert a set off against the payment it was ordered to pay to the Group.

As at 31 December 2022, the Claim is still in process. There were no movements of the fair value of the Put Option for the years ended 31 December 2022 and 2021.

34 STEP ACQUISITION OF A SUBSIDIARY

On 11 February 2021, the Group entered into a sale and purchase agreement with a shareholder of LYGR, pursuant to which the Group agreed to purchase 23.33% of the equity interest in LYGR for a consideration of approximately HK$93,294,000. The consideration was payable by the issue of 69,106,895 new shares of the Company at the issue price of HK$1.35 each.

This acquisition was completed on 2 June 2021 (the “Completion Date”). On Completion Date, LYGR became a 54.22% indirectly owned subsidiary of the Company. In accordance with HKFRSs, the Group continued to share the results of LYGR under the equity method of accounting during the period from 1 January 2021 to the Completion Date.

As at the Completion Date, the Group remeasured the fair value of its previously held 30.89% equity interest in LYGR at the Completion Date and recognised a gain of approximately HK$3,697,000 on the remeasurement of the Group’s pre-existing interest in LYGR to fair value on Completion Date which has been recognised to the profit or loss and presented as “Gain on step acquisition of a subsidiary” under “Other gains and losses, net” as set out in note 8.

LYGR and its subsidiaries are principally engaged in the provision of big data services.

Fair value of net identifiable assets and liabilities of LYGR as at the completion date of acquisition are as follows:

These benefits could not be separately recognised from goodwill because they do not meet the recognition criteria for identifiable intangible assets.

Total consideration satisfied by:
Consideration shares (Note)	136,832
Fair value of previously held 30.89% equity interest in LYGR (Note 19)	113,128
	249,960

Note: As at the Completion Date, the fair value of 69,106,895 new shares would be approximately HK$136,832,000 at the closing price of HK$1.98 each.

As at 31 December 2022, the Group has several outstanding legal proceedings with customers, suppliers and creditors that are against the Group in the PRC from the Group's ordinary course of business. Apart from disclosed below, the directors consider that all other legal proceedings would not have significant financial impact to the Group as the corresponding claims against the Group are either not significant or not probable to have a material financial impact to the Group, based on the advice of the legal counsel.

In October 2022, a litigation claim was made against a non-wholly subsidiary of the Group for an outstanding loan principal and interest of approximately RMB17,999,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$20,148,000). A minority shareholder of those subsidiaries has undertaken to assume the responsibility of the entire outstanding loan principal and interest in case of any default event. (b) Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's major financial instruments include financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, trade and other receivables, restricted bank deposits, bank balances and cash, trade and other payables, lease liabilities, borrowings, promissory notes payable and convertible bonds. Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments and the policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management of the Group manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented in a timely and effective manner.

(i) Market risk

Currency risk

Several subsidiaries of the Company have foreign currency transactions, which expose the Group to foreign currency risk.

At the end of the reporting period, the carrying amounts of the relevant group entities' foreign currencies denominated monetary assets recognised in the consolidated financial statements are as follows:

	Liabilities		Assets
	2022 HK$'000	2021 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000	2021 HK$'000

Sensitivity analysis

As HK$ is pegged with US$, the Group's currency risk in relation to foreign currency denominated monetary liabilities is expected to be minimal.

The Group's sensitivity is a 5% (2021: 5%) increase and decrease in Hong Kong dollars against RMB. 5% (2021: 5%) is the sensitivity rate used when reporting foreign currency risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in foreign exchange rates. A decrease of approximately HK$1,569,000 (2021: increase of approximately HK$167,000) in post-tax-loss where Hong Kong dollars strengthen 5% (2021: 5%) against RMB. For a 5% (2021: 5%) weakening of Hong Kong dollars against RMB, there would be an equal and opposite impact of the loss.

The Group currently does not have a foreign exchange hedging policy. However, the management of the Group monitors foreign exchange exposure and will consider hedging significant foreign exchange exposure should the need arises.

Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to fair value interest rate risk in relation to fixed-rate bank and other borrowings, promissory notes payable, lease liabilities and convertible bonds. The Group is also exposed to cash flow interest rate risk in relation to variable-rate bank balances. The Group manages its interest rate exposures by assessing the potential impact arising from any interest rate movements based on interest rate level and outlook. The management will review the proportion of borrowings in fixed and floating rates and ensure they are within reasonable range.

(i) Interest income from financial assets that are measured at amortised cost is as follows:

	2022 HK$'000	2021 HK$'000
Financial assets at amortised cost	1,073	1,196

(ii) Interest expense on financial liabilities not measured at fair value through profit or loss:

	2022 HK$'000	2021 HK$'000
Financial liabilities at amortised cost	51,681	46,519

Sensitivity analysis

The directors of the Company consider that the exposure of cash flow interest rate risk arising from variable-rate bank balances is insignificant, therefore no sensitivity analysis on such risk has been prepared.

(ii) Credit risk and impairment assessment

Credit risk refers to the risk that the Group's counterparties default on their contractual obligations resulting in financial losses to the Group. The Group's credit risk exposures are primarily attributable to trade receivables, other receivables and deposits, bills receivables and bank balances. The Group does not hold any collateral or other credit enhancements to cover its credit risk associated with its financial assets.

Trade receivables

In order to minimise the credit risk, the management of the Group has delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits and credit approvals. Before accepting any new customer, the Group uses an internal credit scoring system to assess the potential customer's credit quality and defines credit limits by customer. Limits and scoring attributed to customers are reviewed annually. Other monitoring procedures are in place to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In this regard, the Directors consider that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

In addition, the Group performs impairment assessment under ECL model on trade receivables collectively. The trade receivables are grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics by reference to the Group's internal credit ratings. Details of the quantitative disclosures are set out below in this note.

The Group has concentration of credit risk as approximately 16.4% (2021: 16.9%) and approximately 44.9% (2021: 40.6%) of the total trade receivables was due from the Group's largest customer and the five largest customers respectively.

Other receivables, deposits and bills receivables

Management of the Group makes periodic collective assessment as well as individual assessment on the recoverability of other receivables, deposits and bills receivables based on historical settlement records, past experience, and also available reasonable and supportive forward-looking information. The management of the Group believes that there is no material credit risk inherent in the Group's outstanding balance of other receivables, deposits and bills receivables.

Bank balances

The credit risks on bank balances are limited because the counterparties are banks/financial institutions with high credit ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies.

Other than concentration of credit risk on liquid funds which are deposited with several banks with high credit ratings, the Group does not have any other significant concentration of credit risk. Trade receivables consist of a large number of customers, spread across diverse industries and geographical areas.

The Group's concentration of credit risk by geographical locations is mainly in the PRC, which accounted for approximately 91.5% (2021: 91.8%) of the total trade receivables as at 31 December 2022.

The Group's internal credit risk grading assessment comprises the following categories:

Notes:

- For the purposes of internal credit risk management, the Group uses past due information to assess whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition.

Other receivables and deposits	–	211,988	211,988

During the year ended 31 December 2022, the Group recognised impairment allowance of approximately HK$880,000 (2021: HK$10,735,000) for other receivables and deposits and based on the assessment of the management, the ECL on bills receivables is insignificant (2021: insignificant).

- For trade receivables, the Group has applied the simplified approach in HKFRS 9 to measure the loss allowance at lifetime ECL. Except for debtors with significant outstanding balances or credit-impaired, the Group determines the ECL on remaining debtors by internal credit rating collectively.

Internal credit rating

As part of the Group's credit risk management, the Group applies internal credit rating for its debtors. The following table provides information about the exposure to credit risk for trade receivables within lifetime ECL.

(iii) Liquidity risk

In the management of liquidity risk, the Group monitors and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed adequate by the management to finance the Group's operations and mitigates the effects of fluctuations in cash flows.

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its financial liabilities and derivative instruments which has been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of the non-derivative financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. The maturity dates for non-derivative financial liabilities are based on the agreed repayment dates.

The table includes both interest and principal cash flows. To the extent that interest flows are floating rate, the undiscounted amount is derived from interest rate at the end of reporting period.

(c) Fair value of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis

Some of the Group's financial instruments are measured at fair value for financial reporting purposes. The management of the Group have set up a valuation committee, which is headed up by the Chief Financial Officer of the Company, to determine the appropriate valuation techniques and inputs for fair value measurements.

In estimating the fair value, the Group uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. For instruments with significant unobservable inputs under Level 3, the Group engages third party qualified valuers to perform the valuation. The valuation committee works closely with the qualified external valuers to establish the appropriate valuation techniques and inputs to the model. The Chief Financial Officer reports the valuation committee's findings to the management of the Company to explain the cause of fluctuations in the fair value.

Certain Group's financial assets and financial liabilities are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period. The following table gives information about how the fair values of these financial assets and financial liabilities are determined (in particular, the valuation techniques and inputs used).

Financial assets/ financial liabilities	Fair value as at			Valuation techniques and key inputs	Significant unobservable inputs
	31 December 2022	31 December 2021	Fair value hierarchy
Unlisted equity investment classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss	Assets, HK$Nil	Assets, HK$Nil	Level 3	Adjusted net asset value of equity	N/A
Financial Products	Assets, HK$33,583,000	Assets, HK$17,659,000	Level 2	Discounted cash flow — Future cash flows are estimated based on expected return, discounted at a rate that reflects the risk of underlying investments	N/A
Convertible bonds — embedded derivative component	Liabilities HK$76,000	Liabilities, HK$3,539,000	Level 3	Binomial option pricing with the volatilities and risk-free rates as key inputs	Expected volatility (Note (i)) Risk-free rate (Note (i))

Notes:

- (i) As at 31 December 2022, if a) the expected volatility used was multiplied by 95% or 105% while all the other variables were held constant, the gain on fair value change would decrease by approximately HK$42,000 (2021: approximately HK$287,000)/increase by approximately HK$63,000 (2021: approximately HK$278,000); b) the risk-free rate used was multiplied by 95% or 105% while all the other variables were held constant, the gain on fair value change would decrease by approximately HK$1,000 (2021: approximately HK$3,000)/increase by approximately HK$1,000 (2021: approximately HK$2,000).

There were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2, or transfers into or out of Level 3 (2021: nil).
