CHARACTERISTICS OF THE GROWTH ENTERPRISE MARKET ("GEM") OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE "STOCK EXCHANGE")

GEM has been established as a market designed to accommodate companies to which a high investment risk may be attached. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. Furthermore, there may be risks arising out of the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM and the business sectors or countries in which the companies operate. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Given the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

The principal means of information dissemination on GEM is publication on the internet website operated by the Stock Exchange. Listed companies are not generally required to issue paid announcements in gazetted newspapers. Accordingly, prospective investors should note that they need to have access to the GEM website in order to obtain up-to-date information on GEM-listed issuers.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Phoenix's financial situation remained largely stable and Phoenix is well placed to improve its financial performance once the regional economy picks up.
- Phoenix continued to rate highly on the mainland, where a survey commissioned by CCTV judged Phoenix to have the second highest level of audience loyalty among some thirty television stations.
- Phoenix was also rated among the top twenty most respected enterprises in China in 2001 in an evaluation conducted by Management Case Centre Peking.
- Phoenix InfoNews Channel began broadcasting in Hong Kong through the pay-TV channel i-Cable, marking the entry by InfoNews into a major market.

The directors (the "Directors") of Phoenix Satellite Television Holdings Limited (the "Company") have pleasure in presenting the unaudited consolidated income statements and statements of cash flows of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Phoenix Group" or "Phoenix") for the three months and nine months ended 31 March 2002 and the consolidated balance sheet of the Phoenix Group as at 31 March 2002, together with the comparative figures for the corresponding periods and relevant date in 2000/2001.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue of the Phoenix Group for the nine months ended 31 March 2002 was approximately HK$493,639,000, which represented a decrease of 9.1% over the same period last year. The decline was mainly attributable to the worldwide economic downturn. Operating costs for the nine months period increased by 22.6% compared with the same period last year, to approximately HK$615,047,000. This increase in operating costs over the same period last year was in line with expectations: this nine months period included the operating costs for the full period of both the Phoenix InfoNews Channel and the Phoenix North America Chinese Channel, while the same period last year only reflected the operating costs of these two channels for the first three months after their establishment. Moreover, this nine months period also included the operating costs of the Phoenix Chinese News and Entertainment Channel ("PCNE") after its formal acquisition in November 2001.

On a quarter-to-quarter comparison, the revenue of the Phoenix Group for the three months ended 31 March 2002 reduced by a modest 4.4% to approximately HK$165,022,000 when compared with the previous quarter, while operating costs dropped slightly by 2.0% to approximately HK$208,078,000. Loss attributable to shareholders for this quarter was HK$40,303,000.

The table below shows the operating results of our businesses for this quarter and the previous quarter:

	Three months ended 31 March 2002 HK$'000	Three months ended 31 December 2001 HK$'000
Phoenix Chinese & Movies channels	41,488	61,061
Phoenix InfoNews, North America Chinese and PCNE channels	(53,142)	(51,756)
Other businesses	(5,040)	(5,679)
Management overheads	(26,362)	(43,251)
Loss from operations	(43,056)	(39,625)

Due to changes in the arrangement with our advertising agent, Shenzhou Television Company Limited, certain items included in the management overheads had been reclassified as the channels' direct operating costs. Accordingly, management overheads had decreased and the operating costs of the channels had increased in this quarter.

For comparison purposes, the table below shows the operating results of our business for this quarter (same as above) and the previous quarter calculated on the basis that the new arrangement and the reclassification had been fully implemented in that quarter:

	Three months ended 31 March 2002 HK$'000	Three months ended 31 December 2001 HK$'000 (reclassified)
Phoenix Chinese & Movies channels	41,488	47,808
Phoenix InfoNews, North America Chinese and PCNE channels	(53,142)	(52,052)
Other businesses	(5,040)	(5,679)
Management overheads	(26,362)	(29,702)
Loss from operations	(43,056)	(39,625)

Phoenix Chinese Channel contributed approximately 90% of the Group's total revenue. Despite its revenue having dropped by 5.1% compared with the same period last year, its performance was satisfactory in view of the overall downturn of the global advertising markets. Performance of Phoenix Movies Channel and PCNE were very similar to the last quarter. The new channels, namely Phoenix InfoNews and Phoenix North America Chinese channels, had made marginal contributions to Phoenix's revenue but had steady growth. We are pleased to note that advertising revenue of Phoenix in March 2002 had increased by approximately 10.5% as compared with the same month in 2001 and there is a likelihood that this upward trend will continue.

BUSINESS REVIEW

The results of Phoenix during this quarter were similar to the preceding quarter, with some minor variations. Our operating costs were relatively stable as compared with the last quarter. Thus, as a whole, Phoenix's performance this quarter was very similar to the last three quarters.

Television Broadcasting

Phoenix's high standing with the Chinese audience was reflected in a survey commissioned by China Central Television which identified Phoenix as having the second highest level of audience loyalty, and the third highest level of audience satisfaction, out of thirty major television broadcasters in China in 2001. Phoenix was also rated among the top twenty most respected enterprises in China in 2001 in an evaluation conducted by Management Case Centre Peking.

The Phoenix Group built on its highly acclaimed coverage of the war in Afghanistan by continuing to follow international events closely. Phoenix has maintained its reputation as one of the premier news providers in the Chinese-speaking community and continues to possess a substantial audience base among the Chinese elite.

Phoenix InfoNews Channel entered into a remarkable new phase when, on 1 February 2002, it commenced to broadcast in Hong Kong through the i-Cable pay-TV network, signifying InfoNews Channel's entry into a major market. Phoenix continues to seek authorisation from the Chinese State Administration of Film, Radio and Television to broadcast its InfoNews Channel in China on a similar basis to its Chinese Channel.

Business Strategy

Phoenix has continued to explore ways to expand its international reach and to increase advertising and subscription income, and is considering to broadcast some programming on cable and pay-TV networks.

Phoenix is seeking ways to improve performance while reducing costs. Phoenix is currently reviewing a number of outsourcing arrangements in order to complete tasks more economically with in-house resources. Initial figures suggest that this approach promises further savings.

Prospects

Although the overall Asia-Pacific economic environment has reflected the negative influence of the Japanese and other poorly performing regional economies, Phoenix is well placed to benefit from the continuing growth of the Chinese economy, which is Phoenix's key market. We no longer expect to be encumbered by one-off costs, and anticipate that the effort we have put into rationalizing costs will contribute to reducing operational expenditures.

Phoenix's optimism is also reinforced by the prospect that the mainland Chinese viewership base will gradually expand as a consequence of changes in Chinese government policy. Phoenix's now well established record of producing news and entertainment programs that have strong audience appeal will ensure that Phoenix is a major beneficiary of such changes.

The Directors of Phoenix Satellite Television Holdings Limited have the pleasure of presenting the unaudited consolidated income statement and statement of cash flows of the Company and its subsidiaries for the three months and nine months ended 31 March 2002 (the "periods") and the unaudited consolidated balance sheet of the Phoenix Group as at 31 March 2002, together with the comparative figures for the corresponding periods and relevant date in 2000/2001.

NOTES TO THE QUARTERLY REPORT – UNAUDITED

31 MARCH 2002

(Amounts expressed in Hong Kong dollars unless otherwise stated)

1. BASIS OF PREPARATION AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These quarterly financial statements should be read in conjunction with the 2000/2001 annual financial statements and are in compliance with Statement of Standard Accounting Practice Number 25 "Interim Financial Reporting" issued by the Hong Kong Society of Accountants (the "HKSA") and the disclosure requirements set out in Chapter 18 of the GEM Listing Rules.

The Company and its subsidiaries are regarded as a continuing entity after the Group Reorganisation. Accordingly, the financial statements of the Phoenix Group have been prepared on the merger accounting basis as if the Company had always been the holding company of the Phoenix Group.

The accounting policies adopted by the Phoenix Group are consistent with those followed in the annual financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2001, except for the adoption of certain new accounting standards issued by the HKSA as described below.

In the current period, the Phoenix Group has adopted the following Statements of Standard Accounting Practice ("SSAPs") issued by the HKSA:

SSAP 9 (revised)	Events after the balance sheet date
SSAP 26	Segment reporting
SSAP 28	Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets
SSAP 29	Intangible assets
SSAP 30	Business combinations
SSAP 31	Impairment of assets
SSAP 32	Consolidated financial statements and accounting for investments in subsidiaries

For the three-month and nine-month periods ended 31 March 2002, the adoption of the new SSAPs has no material impact on the reported financial position or results of the Phoenix Group.

2. GOODWILL

Cost	47,185

Goodwill primarily represents the excess of the cost of acquisition over the Phoenix Group's interest in the fair value of the net identifiable liabilities of Phoenix Chinese News & Entertainment Limited ("PCNE") acquired as at 1 November 2001 (i.e. date of acquisition). The goodwill is amortised on a straight-line basis over its expected useful life of 20 years, subject to a periodic assessment of any potential impairment in value, based on an evaluation of the recoverable amount.

During the three months and nine months ended 31 March 2002, amortization of goodwill was approximately $1,050,000 and $1,435,000 respectively. The Directors are of the opinion that the recoverable amount of goodwill is not less than the carrying amount as at 31 March 2002.
