

RAZER ANNOUNCES MANAGEMENT CHANGES

APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF INVESTMENT OFFICER AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Hong Kong, January 1, 2020 – Razer™ (“Razer” or the “Company”, Hong Kong Stock Code: 1337), the leading global lifestyle brand for gamers, announced today the following management changes, effective from January 1, 2020:

- Edwin Chan has been appointed Chief Investment Officer, and his deputy will succeed him in the role of Chief Financial Officer of the Company; and
- Tan Chong Neng has been appointed Chief Financial Officer. He was Senior Vice President, Corporate Controller of the Company from November 1, 2017 to December 31, 2019.

“The last year has been one of phenomenal achievements for Razer. These two appointments strengthen our leadership team and leave us well-positioned to continue on our long-term growth trajectory while delivering on our profitability goals,” said Min-Liang Tan, Co-Founder and CEO of Razer.

“Edwin’s appointment as Chief Investment Officer underscores our long-term focus in strategic investments as part of our continued growth. Chong Neng has been a great partner to Edwin and has instilled a culture of rigor and discipline in the Company. His new role will be focused on driving the Company toward profitability,” he added.

Chief Investment Officer

Edwin’s new focus will be managing the Company’s investment portfolios. This will involve developing both short-term and long-term investment strategies for the Company including corporate finance and treasury investments, venture capital investments, and M&A.

Edwin is an Executive Director of the Company and served as the Chief Financial Officer of the Company from June 2013 to December 31, 2019. He previously served as the Director of Corporate Finance from July 2009 to May 2011, the Vice President of Strategy and Corporate Finance from May 2011 to May 2013.

Chief Financial Officer

Chong Neng has been appointed as the Chief Financial Officer.

A finance veteran of more than 20 years, Chong Neng was the Group Chief Financial Officer of the Tri-Star Group prior to joining Razer in 2017. He also served as the Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer of Stanley Security Solutions in Asia Pacific.

Chong Neng holds an MBA from Manchester Business School and a bachelor of accountancy from Nanyang Technological University, and is a Chartered Accountant (Singapore).
