REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE ISSUE OF SUBSCRIPTION SHARES

Under the proposed fundraising, the issuance of the Subscription Shares is expected to provide the Group with definite amount of capital whereby the shareholders base of the Company will also be enlarged, further strengthening the financial position of the Group.

To support the long-term business development of the Company, Tencent Holdings Limited, through its indirect wholly-owned subsidiary, namely Water Lily, entered into the Water Lily Share Subscription Agreement with the Company. The entering into of the Water Lily Share Subscription Agreement will allow the Company to further improve its capital structure while providing financial support for the Company's future business development and industrial investments.

Taking into account the recent market conditions, the Directors consider that raising funds by way of allotment and issue of the Subscription Shares shall enable the Company to obtain funds at a lower cost, as compared to a rights issue or an open offer. The Board has considered other alternative fundraising methods such as debt financing, rights issue or open offer. The Board has considered that debt financing may incur financial costs on the Group, while rights issue or open offer will involve the issue of listing documents with other application and administrative procedures which may require relatively longer time and incur additional administrative costs as compared to the equity financing by way of allotment and issue of new Shares under the General Mandate and the Specific Mandate.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The aggregate gross proceeds of the Share Subscriptions will be approximately HK$300,000,000 (as to approximately HK$140,000,000 from the Share Subscriptions under the General Mandate and as to approximately HK$160,000,000 from the Share Subscription under the Specific Mandate). The aggregate net proceeds of the Share Subscriptions, after the deduction of related fees and expenses, will be approximately HK$300,000,000 (as to approximately HK$140,000,000 from the Share Subscription under the General Mandate and as to approximately HK$160,000,000 from the Share Subscription under the Specific Mandate).

The Company intends to apply the net proceeds from the Share Subscriptions (a) for the Group's general working capital purposes and (b) for the growth and expansion of the business of the Group.

The Board (excluding the independent non-executive Directors whose views will be given after taking into account the advice from the Independent Financial Adviser) is also of the view that the terms of the Water Lily Share Subscription Agreement (including the Subscription Price) are fair and reasonable, on normal commercial terms and are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.
