This announcement is made by the Company on a voluntary basis.

On 16 April 2020 (United States local time), Universal Electronics Inc. requested The United States International Trade Commission (“ITC”) to conduct an investigation under section 337 of the US Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, regarding certain electronic devices and named multiple companies, including but not limited to the Company and a few members within the Group, as the proposed respondents.

The investigation request mainly involves remote-control related technology of the Group’s products. The Company is currently considering the case with its business partners and suppliers involved in the investigation request and coordinating the response. Based on the preliminary assessment by the Company, it is believed that the investigation request will have limited effect on the Group’s operation. The Company will monitor the development of the matter closely, and ensure the relevant business of the Group can be carried out as planned.
