TECHTRONIC INDUSTRIES PROVIDES SUPPORT FOR HAITI

(Hong Kong, 29 January 2010) - Techtronic Industries Co. Ltd. (“TTI or the “Group” (HKEX Stock Code: 669, ADR symbol: TTNDY) a global manufacturer and marketer of consumer and professional power tools, home improvement and construction products, is providing humanitarian aid and rebuilding support in Haiti. In support of humanitarian efforts, TTI supplied and transported medical supplies and personnel to Haiti. In addition, through a partnership with CHF International, TTI will be supplying power tools and equipment from brands such as Milwaukee®, Ryobi®, Homelite® and Hoover® for use in recovery and reconstruction.

“TTI is committed to helping in the relief and rebuilding efforts in Haiti,” said Mr. Horst J. Pudwill, Chairman of TTI. “We are working diligently with CHF International to expedite supplies to the nation to build shelters and transitional housing in the coming months.”

Tools included in the donation will focus on the major needs for rebuilding such as generators, chain saws, power drills, reciprocating saws, circular saws, grinders and impact wrenches.

About CHF International

CHF International is responding to the earthquake immediately with a team of 170 staff. CHF will assist relief efforts in the immediate aftermath, and then we will focus on the needs of the people as they transition from basic survival to recovery. This includes some of CHF's areas of greatest expertise such as building 'transitional shelters'; temporary homes that meet international standards where a family can live during the recovery period; helping to generate livelihoods, by employing people in the clean up of their community; and aiding reconstruction efforts by creating earthquake resistant buildings.

CHF International serves more than 20 million people each year, empowering them to improve their lives and livelihoods for a better future. CHF currently has programs in more than 25 countries around the world, across Asia, Africa, Latin America & the Caribbean, Europe & the Caucasus, and the Middle East. CHF has been working in Haiti since 2006, undertaking a major infrastructure rehabilitation and job creation program that has so far created more than 128,000 short term jobs and completed more than 100 infrastructure projects.
