UPDATED INFORMATION ON THE GROUP'S PRODUCT POLYVINYL ALCOHOL EYE DROPS

This announcement is made by The United Laboratories International Holdings Limited (the "Company") on a voluntary basis.

The board of directors (the "Board") of the Company is pleased to announce that Polyvinyl Alcohol Eye Drops (specification: 1.4% (0.4ml:5.6mg)) submitted by Zhuhai United Laboratories Co., Ltd, Zhongshan Branch, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, has been approved by China National Medical Products Administration, with drug approval number of H20253649.

Polyvinyl alcohol eye drops, an artificial tear substitute that effectively protects the corneal epithelium while preventing or treating eye dryness, foreign body sensation, eye fatigue and other irritation symptoms, as well as improving dry eye symptoms, is classified as a Category B OTC ophthalmic topical drug. The approved polyvinyl alcohol eye drops are packaged in single-dose units, preservative-free, designed to prevent cross-contamination, and easy to carry. The product demonstrates significant efficacy in treating and alleviating dry eye syndrome, with excellent biocompatibility and long-lasting moisturizing effects.

This approval further enriches the Company's ophthalmic product pipeline and helps enhance its market competitiveness in the field of dry eye syndrome treatment. The Company will continue to be committed to new product research and development to create greater returns for the Company and its shareholders.
