Yunkang Group participated in S&P Global CSA for the first time Ranks above 89% of participating global peers

(Hong Kong, 8 April 2024) Yunkang Group Limited ("Yunkang" or the "Group"; Stock Code: 2325), a leading medical operation services provider in China, has announced its score in the "S&P Global Corporate Sustainability Assessment" ("S&P Global CSA").

The Group was invited to participate in the S&P Global CSA for the first time in 2023. With its continuous efforts in promoting environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues and responsiveness to various S&P indicators, the Group achieved a total score of 38 in the S&P global classified HEA Health Care Providers & Services industry, which is higher than the industry average of 22 points and ahead of 89% of its peers included in the assessment. Meanwhile, the Group's overall scores in the environment, social and governance categories also outperformed its peers. Among these, the Group scored higher than 52% of companies in the environmental category, 94% of companies in the social category, and 78% of companies in the governance category.

As one of the world's largest annual assessments of corporate sustainable development performance, the S&P CSA comprehensively reflects a company's level of ESG management and information disclosure through quantitative scoring of each ESG management item and performance, and is an important basis for investment decision-making and data analysis by global investors. In 2023, approximately 239 companies in healthcare provider and services industry were invited to participate in the assessment. Achieving a score that outperformed 89% of global peers represents S&P's high recognition of Yunkang Group's sustainability practices.
