 - (b) Evaluating the Board and management annually, and support the Company's regular evaluation of the Board's performance;
 - (c) Assessing each director's time commitment and contribution to the Board, as well as the director's ability to discharge his or her responsibilities effectively, taking into account professional qualifications and work experience, existing directorships of listed companies (if any) and other significant external time commitments of such director and other factors or circumstances relevant to the director's character, integrity, independence and experience;
 - (d) making recommendations to the Board on the appointment or re-appointment of Directors and succession planning for Directors in particular the chairman and the chief executive;
 - (e) identifying individuals suitably qualified to become Directors and selecting or making recommendations to the Board on the selection of individuals nominated for directorship;
 - (f) assessing the independence of independent non-executive Directors on an annual basis upon receipt and review of a written confirmation from each of the independent non-executive Directors in respect of his or her independence pursuant to Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules (the "INED Confirmation");
 - (g) reporting to the Company as to whether the INED Confirmations have been received from each of the independent non-executive Directors and their view in that regard;

- (h) overseeing research and development activities of Directors and the respective fee payments made by the Company to such Directors;
- (i) reviewing any payments to be made under agreements with any independent non-executive Directors and the terms and conditions and any payment to be made under any further agreements between the Company and the independent non-executive Directors in relation to any new research and development projects, to assess the terms and conditions and the rate for similar transactions in the market to ensure the reasonableness and fairness of the underlying transactions;
- (j) before appointments are made by the Board, evaluating the balance of skills, knowledge and experience on the Board, and, in the light of this evaluation preparing a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment. In identifying suitable candidates, the Nomination Committee shall (where applicable and appropriate):
 - (i) consider candidates from a wide range of backgrounds; and
 - (ii) consider candidates on merit and against objective criteria, taking care that appointees have enough time available to devote to the position;
- (k) use open advertising or the services of external advisers to facilitate the search;
- (l) keeping under review the leadership needs of the organisation, both executive and non-executive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organisation to compete effectively in the marketplace;
- (m) keeping up to date and fully informed about strategic issues and commercial changes affecting the Company and the market in which it operates;
- (n) reviewing annually the time required from non-executive Directors. Performance evaluations should be used to assess whether the non-executive directors are spending enough time in fulfilling their duties;
- (o) ensuring that on appointment to the Board, non-executive Directors receive a formal letter of appointment setting out clearly what is expected of them in terms of time commitment, committee service and involvement outside board meetings; and
- (p) formulating, or assisting the Board to formulate, a board diversity policy for the Company.

15. The Nomination Committee shall also make recommendations to the Board concerning:

- (a) formulating plans for succession for both executive and non-executive Directors;
- (b) suitable candidates for the role of independent non-executive Directors;
- (c) membership of the Company's audit and remuneration committees, in consultation with the chairmen of those committees;
- (d) the re-appointment of any non-executive Director at the conclusion of their specified term of office having given due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the Board in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required;

- (e) the re-election by shareholders of any Director under the “retirement by rotation” provisions in the Company’s Articles of Association having due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the board in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required;
- (f) any matters relating to the continuation in office of any Director at any time including the suspension or termination of service of an executive director as an employee of the Company subject to the provisions of the law and their service contract; and
- (g) the appointment of any Director to executive or other office.

Reporting procedures

- 16. Full minutes of the Nomination Committee’s meetings should be kept by a duly appointed secretary of the meeting (who should normally be the Company Secretary or his/her appointed delegate), and such minutes shall be available for inspection at any reasonable time on reasonable notice by any Director.
- 17. Minutes of meetings of the Nomination Committee shall record in sufficient detail the matters considered by the Nomination Committee and decisions reached, including any concerns raised by Directors, members or dissenting views expressed. Draft and final versions of minutes should be sent to all members of the Nomination Committee for their comment and records respectively, in both cases within a reasonable time after such meetings.
- 18. Without prejudice to the generality of the duties of the Nomination Committee set out above, the Nomination Committee shall report back to the Board and keep the Board fully informed of its decisions and recommendations, unless there are legal or regulatory restrictions on it to do so.

Provision of terms of reference

- 19. The Nomination Committee shall make available these Terms on request and by inclusion on the Stock Exchange’s website and the Company’s website, thereby explaining its role and the authority delegated to it by the Board.
